13 Killed, 30 Hurt In N. C. Mishap

Highway Crash Termed Worst In History Of State

By BRYAN BALSILIP

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—A flat-bed truck loaded with migrant workers and a tractor-trailer truck slammed together in a fiery crash at a road intersection today and killed 13 persons, the State Highway Patrol reported.

Between 25 and 30 were injured. Fire that broke out caused most of the deaths, the patrol said. "It looked like a ball of fire," said Joe Lozak of Berwick, Pa., who saw the crash in the rear-view mirror of his potato truck. "Men, women and children were lying all over the highway."

37 Victims

The patrol said 41 laborers, from several states, were aboard the truck which pulled into the path of the tractor-trailer at the intersection of Highways 301 and 102, nine miles north of Fayetteville, at 7:15 a.m.

"I didn't count them, but one of the boys said he counted 37 (victims) at one time, all lying down, some dead and some injured, some squirming around," said W. H. Covington, operator of a country store near the road crossing.

One laborer said the workers, after camping overnight near Mount Olive, N.C., were en route to Dunn, N.C., to harvest beans. Gilbert Robert Peters, 25, of Route 2, Walwalopen, Pa., the tractor-trailer driver, was slightly hurt. The flat-bed truck driver was among those killed.

Badly Mangled
Covington, who said he went to the site after "a couple of fellows came to the store to call an ambulance," added: "There was plenty of blood. Some of them (victims) were mangled all up. It was a terrible sight."

The scene, about 50 miles south of Raleigh, was one of utmost confusion as the truck blazed, injured groaned and wailed, and ambulances sired in among patrol cars and traffic to pick up the victims.

Leaders Civil Rights Proposal Seek Supporters

WASHINGTON (AP)—House managers of civil rights legislation called on their supporters today to attend sessions faithfully so Southerners won't seize a chance to sidetrack or water down the bill.

After clearing preliminaries yesterday, the House today begins four days of formal debate on the measure. Then will come the crucial tests when the bill will be open to amendment.

Chairman Celler (D-N.Y.) of the House Judiciary Committee, one of the sponsors of the bill, predicted it will pass by the end of next week without serious amendment. "If the boys stand by and are assiduous."

House passage would send the civil rights bill to face even deeper entrenched Southern opposition in the Senate. The House Southerners, virtually unanimous in opposition to the bill, have now used practically all the delaying tactics available, and with considerable success. Supporters had hoped for a vote in February. The Southerners can still try to dilute the bill or to load it with provisions so unpopular among its supporters that it cannot pass.

Mitchell Resigns As AEC Attorney

WASHINGTON (AP)—William Mitchell submitted his resignation today as general counsel of the Atomic Energy Commission, a post he has held since 1953.

Mitchell informed AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss that he is leaving government service to return to private life. The resignation is effective June 15.

Bakers Union Heading For Investigative Oven

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate rackets probers sought today to show who got expensive automobiles and tens of thousands of dollars allegedly misappropriated from Bakers Union funds.

They also want to know whether, as has been reported, certain union officials exchanged favors with employers with whom they had collective bargaining dealings.

Allegations on these and other scores have split the 169,000-member union into warring camps and led to investigation by the special Senate committee seeking evidence of wrongdoing in labor unions and industry.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) and committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy announced they were calling Anthony Conforti, president, and George Stuart, resigned former vice president.

Meanwhile, Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) made public a letter in which he proposed hearings dealing with alleged misuse of their companies' funds by some corporation officials. He did not name them.

Mundt included this as one of six points of inquiry he said he felt should be completed by the committee. His letter to McClellan said these should include hearings on secondary boycotts and alleged misdeeds by unions and employers.

Woman Has 14th Child Since 1954

PARIS (INS)—Agence France Presse said today that an African woman, previously the mother of twins, triplets and quadruplets, gave birth to quintuplets today.

AFP said Mrs. Selina Covane, 27, gave birth to four boys and a girl at Vila Joao De Belo, 120 miles north of Lourenco Marques in Mozambique, Portuguese East Africa.

The dispatch said that Mrs. Covane had twins in 1954, triplets in 1955 and quadruplets last year. All 14 children, AFP reported, are living.

GOP Leaders Gather To Air Ike's Budget

Two-Day Strategy
Session Begins;
Johnson Answers Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said today Congress is cutting President Eisenhower's budget in a "bipartisan" way and he hopes the administration doesn't "inject politics into this matter."

About 300 Republicans, representing all the states, gathered, meanwhile, for a two-day strategy conference at which the administration spending program is certain to be the principal topic. Johnson, Senate Democratic leader, spoke out in reply to President Eisenhower's news conference jibe at opposition party spenders.

Eisenhower said yesterday those who complain about his $71,800,000,000 budget ought to think about how much higher spending would be if budgets like that submitted by President Truman in 1953 were projected into the future.

Eisenhower said the people ought to get the "actual facts" instead of merely listening to partisan speeches.

Johnson said he couldn't find anything "partisan" about the way Congress has reduced Eisenhower's requests for new money. "We have treated the Eisenhower budget just as we would have treated a Truman budget or a Roosevelt budget," Johnson said.

"I hope the administration doesn't inject politics into this matter."

Phoenix Woman Teacher Of Year

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Mrs. Elsie Lee Kahl of Phoenix, Ariz., who speaks 11 languages and is a registered nurse, was named "Teacher of the Year" today by the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Kahl was picked from among top teachers entered by women's clubs in 28 states. She is the first winner in the federation's new "Oscar for Teachers" program to honor the nation's teachers in much the same way Hollywood honors the movie stars.

Mrs. John L. Whitehurst of Baltimore, Md., chairman of the federation's Department of Education, who organized the award, said Mrs. Kahl "has for many years given herself to others."

Red Bosses Open Tour Of Finland

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Khrushchev arrived in Finland today for a seven-day round of smiles and handclaps.

The Finns hailed out a red carpet to deck the railroad terminal in Helsinki. Soviet security police were busy scouting out a modernistic villa overlooking the Helsinki port where the Kremlin delegation was booked to stay.

The Russian leaders laid over for 15 minutes at Vainikkala between the Russian-Finnish border and Helsinki. They drew cheers and laughter as they patted youngsters on the head and shook hands with street crowds.

Ike To Look Navy's Air, Sea Power

President Boards
Saratoga To Check
Atlantic Maneuvers

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower goes aboard the new 350-million-dollar supercarrier Saratoga today for a look during Atlantic maneuvers at the Navy's atomic age air and sea power.

The President, accompanied by three Cabinet officers and other top administration officials, arranged an early departure by plane for Mayport Naval Base near Jacksonville, Fla.

Eisenhower will be aboard the 60,000-ton carrier until early tomorrow afternoon, when he will go ashore at the Mayport base and fly back to Washington.

Air Exhibitions
The Saratoga is planning both daylight and after-dark spectacular demonstrations for the President 60 to 100 miles off the Florida east coast.

The schedule includes an exhibition of aircraft techniques used in the firing of atomic and conventional weapons, the launching of three types of guided missiles, and a demonstration of antisubmarine warfare tactics.

The training exercises arranged for today call for concentration on offense, to show the striking power of the supercarrier and its aircraft. Tomorrow the emphasis will be on air defense.

"This is the final stage of the Saratoga's 'training up' for deployment soon to the Mediterranean, where she will join the U. S. 6th Fleet on patrol duty."

Wilson, Dulles Along
In the presidential party are Secretary of Defense Wilson; Secretary of State Dulles; Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey; Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission; Secretary of the Navy Gates; Arthur Larson, chief of the U. S. Information Agency; Budget Director Percival Brundage; Gordon Gray, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization; Eisenhower's son John, an Army major assigned temporarily to the White House; and several White House staff members.

Joining up on the Saratoga were Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, and Rear Adm. Robert B. Pirie, commander of the Saratoga task group of warships.

Texas Farmers Brace For New Flooding Water

DALLAS (AP)—Bottomland farmers in three states were bracing today for new crests on the flooding Red River, which already is surging at its highest level in 10 years in some areas.

But the Weather Bureau offered the prospect of a lull in the torrential rains that have caused the river to swirl out of its banks along the Texas-Oklahoma boundary and in parts of Arkansas.

Water was roaring three feet deep over the spillway at Denison Dam on sprawling Lake Texoma, largest man-made reservoir in the nation.

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers stepped up its discharge of water from the flooding lake in an effort to control the torrents of water pouring downstream. Resort areas around the lake are under water.

Army engineers announced the level reached 643.14 feet above sea level last night and was still rising. Releases were increased from 91,000 cubic feet per second to 95,000.

Mixed Trading

CHICAGO (AP)—There was mixed trading in wheat futures at the start on the Board of Trade today, and changes were confined to minor fractions. Corn, oats and soybeans were somewhat weak.

Reds Propose 'Pledge' Against Atomic Weapons

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union has proposed to the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee that a first step toward disarmament include a "solemn pledge" not to use atomic weapons.

The official Soviet news agency Tass today reported the proposal was made by Soviet Delegate Valerian Zorin during a closed meeting of the five-nation subcommittee here yesterday.

Informants said British Delegate Allan Noble countered that it is not "realistic" to try to abolish the use of atomic weapons through a simple pledge. He was said to have told the meeting such pledges are likely to be worthless unless they are backed by appropriate control and enforcement machinery.

The sources said Zorin then charged Noble with "going back on the words uttered by representatives of the Western countries in the subcommittee."

The Tass account did not mention the exchange between Zorin and Noble.

In addition to the Soviet Union and Britain, the subcommittee is made up of France, Canada and the United States. The Western members in the past have opposed Soviet proposals for abolishing nuclear weapons by declaration and without some form of inspection and control.

Soviet Premier Bulganin, in an unprecedented personal message to yesterday's opening session of the International Labor Organization in Geneva, declared Russia is ready to conclude an "appropriate agreement" on disarmament. He said the Soviets were ready to act on the "whole problem...as well as on its particular aspects, including an agreement on immediate cessation of nuclear weapons tests."

Princess Margaret Cools Burning Dogs

LONDON (INS)—Not even Britain's perfectly poised Princess Margaret is able to resist the desire to slip off her shoes to ease her burning dogs.

Britons were heartily amused today by a human picture of the lovely Princess lifting one foot from a court shoe and wiggling her toes as she chatted with the immaculately topped Lord Porchester.

The picture was taken at an Epsom Downs paddock before the English Derby was run. It was gleefully captioned, "Oh my poor feet."

Move Made For Hearing In U.S. Court

Girard Selects
Noted Attorney
To Head Defense

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A suit seeking to block the trial of William S. Girard in Japanese courts was filed today in U. S. District Court here.

Girard, an Army specialist 3-C, is accused in the death of a Japanese woman killed as she scavenged scrap on an Army firing range in Japan. The United States has agreed to permit trial in local civil courts instead of a U. S. court-martial.

MAEBASHI, Japan (AP)—GI William Girard has picked a Japanese veteran of World War II war crimes trials to head his defense against charges of causing the death of a Japanese woman on a military firing range.

The Army announced today the Ottawa, Ill., soldier had selected Ituro Hayashi as his chief attorney from a list of more than 50 American and Japanese lawyers, compiled by the U. S. Embassy. Girard is scheduled to be tried by a Japanese court. No date has been set.

Hayashi, defense counsel before the International Military Tribunal for the Far East from 1946-49, said he planned to meet Girard for the first time tomorrow. He told reporters he could make no announcement of defense plans yet.

"Everything about the entire case will depend upon my discussions with Girard tomorrow," he said.

The Army announcement said Girard also had asked Maj. Stanley F. Levin, 49, Hollywood, Calif., to serve as his personal legal adviser. Levin is a member of the judge advocate's office of the 1st Cavalry Division.

In Ottawa, Louis Girard, brother of the accused soldier, said he had hired Earl J. Carroll, a former Air Force major who has been prominently identified with the defense of GIs overseas, to serve as defense counsel.

Carroll said in New York he would file a writ of habeas corpus in U. S. District Court in Washington today, charging the U. S. government violated Girard's constitutional rights by authorizing his trial in a Japanese court. Carroll said he would ask the court to order the Army to deliver the soldier to Washington for a hearing.

Carroll said he also plans to seek an injunction restraining the Army from turning Girard over to Japanese authorities for trial.

Girard, an Army specialist third class, has been indicted on charges of "inflicting bodily injury causing death" of the Japanese woman, a charge similar to a manslaughter indictment in the United States. He is accused of firing an empty cartridge case from a grenade launcher and killing Mrs. Naka Sakai, 46, while she picked up scrap metal on a firing range.

The case developed into an international issue when Japanese authorities contended the soldier was not on duty when the fatality occurred and claimed Japan had the right to try him under the status-of-peace agreement with the United States.

Minor Changes Scheduled For Nation's Weather

By The Associated Press
The nation's weather pattern showed only minor changes today, with showers or thunderstorms indicated in widely scattered areas across the country.

The water-logged areas of the Southwest were in line for additional rainfall, increasing threats of further flooding in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

One well belt stretched from the Southern Plains eastward to the Atlantic Coast and northward through the Middle Atlantic Coast region and Ohio Valley to the lower Great Lakes.

Hail and rain pelted Midwest areas yesterday as thunderstorms rumbled across the upper Mississippi Valley and western Great Lakes region. Strong winds lashed partly to boycott the vote, but many areas, rainfall in most later returned to lead the opposition was light although it measured an inch in the Chicago area, meat.

President Says Big H-Bombs Are Probably Cleanest Ever

WASHINGTON (AP)—Into the weapons has been reduced by great debate over radioactive contamination has come the statement of President Eisenhower that American weapons are cleaning up much of the fallout in smaller nuclear bombs and that the big H-bombs are clean for their size.

At his news conference yesterday, the President made two points:

1. The fallout (the by-products of fission and the activated debris and dust) from the smaller

DuPont Ruling Called Milestone

Lawyers See Decision As Spur To Enforcement

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's antitrust victory over the Du Pont Co. and General Motors Corp., was heralded by some federal officials today as a "milestone" decision.

They said it may pave the way for tougher enforcement of the monopoly laws.

After close study of Monday's Supreme Court ruling in the Du Pont-GM case, government lawyers believe they have gained a potent weapon against business mergers.

More than a score of antitrust cases, involving some of the largest corporations, are now based on several factors, including these:

1. Any precedent which lays out ground rules for Section 7 cases is important. Very few court decisions—only two, some officials said—have been rendered.

2. The decision suggests that antitrust complaints can be based on events of years past. Du Pont started acquiring its 23 per cent stock interest in GM in 1917. But the court held that a Clayton Act complaint need not be started at the time the stock was purchased.

The proceedings may begin, it was held, whenever there is a reasonable probability that acquisition might threaten monopoly or restraint of competition.

3. The opinion supplies a precedent for federal action against "vertical" mergers—that is, the acquisition of a supplier firm or a company customer, rather than a competitor. Usually the law has been applied against "horizontal" mergers—the elimination of a brief train stopover in St. Louis yesterday. Truman, a former senator, explained that he felt the presidency is the most demanding job in the world.

Truman again expressed a desire that the baby not be named for him. "That's up to the parents," he said. "But if he is as a full-term baby, and both named Harry, he'll never live it down. The boy would be under a handicap the rest of his life."

The beaming grandfather picked out a Senate career for the baby in talking with newsmen in the name somewhere.

Nixon Says Soviet Plan Would Be At Red Mercy

By FRANCES LEWINE

ASHEVILLE, N. C.—(AP)—Vice President Nixon said last night Russia's proposal for Allied and Soviet troop withdrawals in Europe would "leave the free countries of Europe at the mercy of the Communist world."

He said Russia boss Nikita S. Khrushchev was playing "the old shell game" when he made the proposal.

Noting that the United States has always been ready "to meet the Soviet Union halfway on any reasonable basis" in disarmament talks, the vice president said: "We owe a duty to our allies and to ourselves not to be sucked into the old shell game trade of one horse for one rabbit, which is what Mr. Khrushchev offered last Sunday when he suggested that we should withdraw our forces from Europe's 3,000 miles in return for the Soviet moving theirs from the satellite countries 300 miles away."

"All this would do is to leave the free countries of Europe at the mercy of the Communist world."

Nixon made what was apparently a White House-approved reply to Khrushchev before the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

He drew applause when he acknowledged "there has been some waste and inefficiency" in our foreign aid program, but suggested that "when we consider the tremendous stakes involved, the remedy for these difficulties and errors is to try to do a more effective job and not to give up and let the Soviet Union start taking over the world."

Success Of Jupiter Encourages Army

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army—encouraged by the "completely successful" test firing of its Jupiter guided missile—was reported today to be eager to move into the earth satellite program.

If true, the service would be entering competition in the controversial missile field not only with the Air Force but with the Navy as well.

Army spokesmen preserved official silence.

Graham Touches Race Problem In N. Y. Sermon

By GEORGE CORNELL

NEW YORK (AP)—A man who looks down on another human being because of his color, Billy Graham says, is sinning against God.

"The heart of all men is the same in God's sight, despite the shape of their physique or the color of the skin," he told a crowd of 18,000 at Madison Square Garden last night.

He said God spurns the "prejudice and bigotry that I fear many often have even in the churches today."

Taking his sermon text from John 4:1-29, in which Jesus defies the racial hostility between Jews and Samaritans by teaching a Samaritan woman at Jacob's well, Graham said:

"Jesus had no national animosities. . . . Jesus had no racial prejudice. . . . Jesus had no bigotry. . . . whether a person walked different or talked different or had a different color of skin."

The evangelist said, "God looks on the heart," not the physical characteristics. "God made of one blood all nations."

At the end of Graham's sermon, 622 persons responded to his plea to "yield your life to Christ." So far, a total of 13,306 have taken this step.

As Graham's crusade entered its fourth week, attendance has totaled 392,500. The drive now is scheduled to run until July 21, with a possibility of the meeting being held in Yankee Stadium on the closing date, and at the Polo Grounds June 30.

Arrangements have not been completed for either of the two outdoor arenas.

competitor by gobbling him up.

This "vertical" merger principle was at the center of the DuPont decision. The majority wrote that DuPont "purposely employed its stock (in GM) to pry open the General Motors market to encroach itself as the primary supplier of General Motors' requirements for automotive finishes and fabrics."

Academy's Top Man To Wed Harry Wants Grandson Be U. S. Senator

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 5—(AP)—Forrest R. Hanvey, who stands No. 1 in the Naval Academy graduating class, will be married Sunday to the girl who gave him "permission to drink coffee" four years ago.

At the time, Hanvey was a plebe at the academy and plebes under 21 have to get special permission for such vices from some "dignitary, politician or famous young lady."

Miss Suzanne Monnett, then a sophomore at Towson State Teachers College, was farm queen at the Maryland State Fair. Her father is a tobacco farmer at Prince Frederick, Md.

Hanvey saw her picture in the paper and asked his upper classman tormentor if she would do as his sponsor for a "coffee chit." She would, so he wrote a long and impassioned plea for the privilege of drinking coffee and included a lot of other information about himself.

They dated frequently after that and were engaged formally during his junior year.

Their wedding at 4 p.m. Sunday will be televised on NBC's "Wide World"—the first television of a chapel wedding in the academy's history.

Hanvey, son of Police Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor of Anaheim, Calif., will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force upon graduation Friday.

FBI Academy Graduates 98

WASHINGTON (INS)—The FBI National Academy will graduate 98 local law enforcement officers today from its 55th session.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said the total number of graduates since the institution was started in 1935 now total 3,360.

Featured speakers at the ceremony will be Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman of the Southern District of New York.

Senate Relations Committee Begins Shaping Up Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee begins shaping a foreign aid bill today. There were indications the program may be cut by 750 million dollars or more.

There also were signs the committee is in a mood to deny the Eisenhower administration most of the long-range authority it has asked for military and economic assistance to free world nations. Authority now is granted on a year-to-year basis.

The administration is asking $3,665,000,000 in new foreign aid funds for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Stronger Support

In advance of today's sessions, Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said that there is much stronger support within the committee for a long-range economic development loan fund than there is for permanent authorization for military assistance and defense support appropriations.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), who supports the administration's whole program, agreed with Sparkman that the committee will seek language under which the proposed development fund "can be assured of continuing authority."

To Keep Fund The administration bill would authorize 500 million dollars for such a fund for the first year, as well as authority for the fund to borrow 750 millions from the Treasury each of the next two years.

Under its language, any money not spent in any year would remain in the fund for loans in succeeding years, as would any repayments to the fund.

The first mule bred in the United States was bred by George Washington.

Another guest who caused some excited comment was Michael Parker, former secretary to the Duke. Parker's marital troubles set off a flood of rumor last year which involved the Queen and her husband.

What To Wear Grooming The Groom For That Wedding Day

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)—As certainly as the fact that it takes two to tango, there is one indisputable theory regarding June weddings: For every June bride, there's a June groom.

Naturally, the bride will be the center of attention, with her lovely gown, beautiful bouquet and the steely glint in her eyes. But the groom must complement her in appearance.

Here's a quick check-list on types of weddings and orthodox apparel:

Informal wedding—Navy blue suit, white shirt, solid tie, preferably in gray. For June weddings, a lightweight suit can be chosen. Some June days are cool, so you'll either have to gamble or trust the long-range weather forecast.

Semi-formal wedding—If it's a daytime affair, you can stick to the same outfit as for an informal wedding. After six o'clock, however, you should switch to a dinner jacket. You can wear a collar-attached white dress shirt, with pleated front.

Formal wedding—Here's where you can use the cutaway coat and gray striped trousers and light gray vest. In the evening, however, white tie and tails is the preferred outfit. During the summer, though, you can wear a white dinner jacket over black or navy trousers for a formal evening affair.

If yours is an informal wedding, you're lucky. You can buy a good navy suit and it won't be a total loss. Chances are you'll get lots of wear out of it, in sickness and in health, until moth-eaten do you part.

Countess Mara has pioneered a lot of good ideas in ties. So it's always interesting to see what she's got up her bouffante sleeves.

In her spring '57 collection, the designs are smaller, with more space between them. Color is more subtle—shades like beige, cloud blue, ivory, are softer and more subdued than usual. There's more emphasis on fabric texture than heretofore, many with natural and exaggerated textural characteristics. There are also dozens of newly-created bowties, getting the Countess Mara treatment.

If you've got in-between feet—sometimes taking, for example, a 10½ B and sometimes an 11 C—you should know that feet are inclined to swell a trifle in the hot months. You'd be smart, therefore, to get the maximum size when you buy summer shoes. No point in perpetuating a hot foot.

Air-conditioning is delightful stuff, but some days it gets a little too cool. It's a sensible idea to invest in a lightweight wool sweater-vest to keep around the office (or factory or silo or wherever you work). On those days when the machine is over-extending itself, the sweater-vest feels just right. And it looks fine, too.

A Letter To Our NON-CATHOLIC Neighbors

Catholics and non-Catholics, as a rule, get along right well together.

Our families live amicably next door to each other and often become lifetime friends. Our sons fight side by side on every battlefield. We work together in the same shops and factories . . . do for the same baseball teams . . . do business with one another in a spirit of mutual trust every day.

In these and other phases of everyday life, there is a close association which promotes understanding and respect. But in religion . . . where this close association does not exist . . . there is often a regrettable lack of understanding and a corresponding absence of good-will.

Many people, for instance, have all sorts of false ideas about Catholics and the Catholic Church. They actually believe that Catholics worship statues . . . that many sordid things happen behind convent walls . . . that Catholics do not believe in the Bible . . . that Catholic teaching is pure superstition and the Mass nothing but mumbo-jumbo.

All non-Catholics, of course, do not believe such things. But enough of these false rumors are in circulation to cause some sincere and intelligent non-Catholics to look upon the Catholic Church with suspicion, and to reject Catholic truth without even troubling to investigate it.

It is for this reason that the Knights of Columbus, a society of Catholic laymen, publishes advertisements like this explaining what Catholics really believe. We want our non-Catholic friends and neighbors to understand us and our Faith, even if they do not wish to join us. We want them to know the Catholic Church as it really is . . .

not as it is so often misrepresented to be.

It is also important to you personally, however, to inquire into the teaching of the Catholic Church. For unless you do, you cannot know whether the Catholic Church is or is not the Church established by Jesus Christ for your salvation. You cannot intelligently accept or reject Catholic teaching until you investigate it and know what it really is.

A distinguished Catholic author has written "A Letter to a Friend Not of My Faith." This letter has been published in the form of a pamphlet which can be read in a few minutes . . . and which gives a remarkably clear and beautiful explanation of Catholic beliefs, worship and history. More importantly, it gives a blue print of Christian living which will deeply move you whether you accept or reject the Catholic viewpoint.

This highly interesting pamphlet is well worth the few minutes it will take you to read it. We will be glad to send you a copy free, on request. It will come in a plain wrapper . . . and nobody will call on you. Write today . . . ask for Pamphlet No. KC-23.

Volunteer Cafeteria Group Entertained At SS. Peter, Paul

The volunteer workers in the cafeteria at SS. Peter and Paul Parochial School were entertained by Rev. Marius Elsenor, O.F.M., pastor of SS. Peter and Paul Church, Tuesday evening with a dinner in the cafeteria. Arrangements of assorted garden flowers decorated the tables. Favors were miniature plaques on tiny racks decorated in pastel colors. Father Marius gave the invocation and welcomed the guests. He also thanked Mrs. Frederick A. Puderbaugh for her work during the past eight years as supervisor of the cafeteria, and presented her with a crystal and silver rosary in appreciation. Mrs. Puderbaugh responded, and thanked all those who assisted her.

Guests were Rev. Sylvan Fendrich, O.F.M. Cap.; Rev. Kenan Crowley, O.F.M. Cap.; Rev. Kilian Krings, O.F.M. Cap.; and Rev. Ervan Maisel, O.F.M. Cap. Aides attending were Mesdames Margaret Arnold, Margaret Azar, J. J. Bender, Gertrude Bergman, Ambrose Burkey, Edward Burkley, Ethel Brady, C. H. Bonig, Charles Brode, Teresa Brode, Edward Brookman, J. W. Byer, George L. Carney, D. A. Carlomany, H. T. Carolan, George Connor, Nooman

Reinhard, Jessie Turner, W. R. Yoder, Frank Yockus, Edward Milbrada, Mary Zarger, Hilda Scott, Catherine Johnson, Margaret Morrissey, Anna McCullough, Gene Herstine and Rita Firle, and Misses Madeleine Dahl, Mary Soethe and Rose Schmutz.

RWSC Club Holds Tea

The rural Women's Short Course Club entertained approximately 120 members of the Homemakers Club Tuesday at its annual tea at the Civic Club House.

Mrs. Douglas Smith welcomed the guests and presided at a short business session, giving the highlights of the R.W.S.C. which opens at College Park the week of June 17. Registrations closed yesterday with an enrollment of 82. Miss Patricia Golden was in charge of RWSC registration, and Miss Mary Wise is in charge of transportation, campus and dormitories. Mrs. James R. Smith discussed classes and tours.

A highlight of the tea was the telephone greeting from Miss Maude A. Bean in Nebraska. Miss Bean is a former county home demonstration agent. The program opened with the group singing, "America the Beautiful." Mrs. Wilbert Brinkman, Valley Road club, sang, "Toyland." Victor Herbert, "Little Damsel." Novello, and "Hills of Home." Fox. She was accompanied by her daughter, Shirley, a graduate in organ from the School of Music of West Virginia Wesleyan College. Summer flowers were used in the decorations. Mrs. Dean Evans and Mrs. K. O. Nelson poured. Mrs. George Kraft and Mrs. Edward Lewis were hostesses; and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Charles Burkley and Mrs. Herbert Nesbitt were in charge of decorations.

Limited Lawsuits

A statute of limitations is the period fixed by statute within which lawsuits must be brought for legal redress. After the expiration, suits are forever barred.

The Welfare Group of the Woman's Civic Club will meet June 10 at the summer cottage of Mrs. John S. Cook, Patterson Creek, for a covered-dish picnic. Members needing transportation are to call PA 2-6232 or PA 2-6316 by Saturday evening.

The Centre Street School PTA will hold a dinner for the faculty today at 6:30 p. m. at Moon's dining room.

Boys State Head Chosen

JACKSON'S MILL, W. Va. (AP)—Judge Chauncey Browning of the State Supreme Court swore in John H. (Tex) Kile of Charleston High School yesterday as governor of Mountaineer Boys State, annual citizenship training camp sponsored by the American Legion.

Kile, who won the office by a margin of 17 votes, was inaugurated in a ceremony in the amphitheater at the State 4-H Camp here. The inauguration was followed by the Boys State parade, with Kile reviewing the 347 other Boys State citizens, all high school juniors.

Gov. Underwood, who was a counselor at Boys State for several years, was to address the 20th anniversary banquet tonight.

Voting was held late last night in the general election to choose officials of the model state, county and municipal governments which are the main feature of the camp.

Difference

Chief difference between locusts and other grasshoppers is that locusts have shorter antennae. Grasshoppers include all the insects called locusts, but not all grasshoppers are locusts.

HAS PROPOSAL.—Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, nuclear physicist and former Atomic Energy Commission consultant, suggested that in the event of a nuclear war it might be a good idea to create a protective bank of human sperm to carry on succeeding generations. Speaking before a Senate-House fallout hearing, Dr. Lapp proposed an international monitoring system to check on the amount of dangerous radiation resulting from nuclear weapons tests. (AP Photofax)

Methodists Pay Tribute To Wesley

Conference Marks 250th Anniversary Of Leader's Birth

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP)—Clergy and lay delegates to the 173rd annual Laymen's Conference of the Methodist Church commemorated the birth of Charles Wesley with a special program tonight.

The celebration marked the 250th anniversary of the birth of Wesley, writer of more than 6,500 hymns and brother of John Wesley, leader of the Methodist movement in the 18th century.

It climaxed the first full day of activity in the five-day convention, during which the Woman's Society of Christian Service installed new officers and the retirement of 21 Methodist ministers was announced.

The Wesley hymn festival included music by the choir of the Westminster Methodist Church under the direction of J. Edward Meyer, professor of church music at Wesley Theological Seminary. The Rev. William F. Dunkle Jr., pastor of Grace Church in Wilmington, Del., was to interpret the hymns and tell of Wesley's life.

Among his most popular hymns are "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

Earlier today, the estimated 900 delegates heard their first reports on such subjects as conference relations, group insurance, salaries, ministerial training, world peace and social and economic relations.

At a memorial service last night, the Rev. Paul R. Diehl of Sykesville called the roll of 15 ministers, 10 wives and widows, one deaconess and seven lay members who have died since the last convention. The address was by the Rev. Edward G. Latch, of the Metropolitan Memorial Church, Washington, D. C.

Tomorrow, there will be more committee reports and an address that night by Dr. Gerold O. McCulloh, director of the department of theological schools for the Methodist Church's board of education.

Saturday is Methodist Youth Fellowship Day. The convention closes Sunday after reading of appointments for the coming year. Besides the memorial service, the only events held last night—the conference's first day—were a Holy Communion service at which Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of Washington officiated and a rural fellowship dinner.

The conference includes the District of Columbia, Berkeley and Morgan counties in West Virginia and the 15 Maryland counties west of the Chesapeake Bay. Mrs. William J. E. Apsley of Lutherville, Md., was named president of the WSCS, succeeding Mrs. Thomas F. Law of Washington. Other officers named included: Mrs. Leonard N. Sowards, Arlington, Va., vice president; Mrs. David I. Brown, Baltimore, recording secretary; Mrs. Ralph E. Parker, Washington, treasurer; Mrs. Karl F. Wright, Baltimore, promotion secretary; Mrs. Thomas F. Law, Washington, member-at-large; and Mrs. Jay Elmer Morgan, Washington, honorary president.

Mt. St. Mary's Graduates 107

ENMITSBURG, Md. (AP)—The Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore, yesterday awarded degrees to 107 seniors, 16 of them Marylanders, at the 149th commencement exercises of Mount St. Mary's College. Honorary degrees were bestowed on Dr. Philip A. Caulfield, chief of surgery at Providence Hospital, Washington, who was the commencement speaker, and the Revs. Emmett P. Gallagher, Alexandria, Va., Michael A. Gilloegly, Scranton, Pa., and John B. Corboy of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.

Lake Windermere is the largest lake in England. Its greatest width is one mile and it is about 10½ miles long.

Republican Appointed To West Virginia PSC

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Republican Myron R. (Rusty) Renick of Fayetteville replaced Democrat Homer W. Hanna Jr. of Charleston yesterday as chairman of the Public Service Commission. Renick's appointment to the $10,000-a-year post, announced by Gov. Underwood today, was effective immediately. Pending appointment of a successor, Hanna had continued to serve, although his term ran out May 31.

Little more than an hour after he was sworn in, the new chairman joined his two fellow commissioners on the bench for the final session of a three-day hearing on a rate increase application by the Hope Natural Gas Co. The appointment is subject to confirmation by the State Senate the next time it meets. PSC terms are for six years.

Short Trip

HEALDTON, Okla. (AP)—Bobby Elmore didn't mind riding on a bus with 43 girls to the annual Future Homemakers of America convention at Oklahoma City. He is a homemaker student at Healdton High School and decided to take in the convention. His 43 girl companions tabbed him a "stranger in paradise."

Unit Dismisses Its Secretary

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The State Water Commission has dismissed John W. Lester, the chemical engineer who has been its executive secretary since November of 1955.

The Associated Press learned that Lester was advised at a meeting yesterday, attended by three of the five commission members, that he was being let out effective June 15. The dismissal actually was voted at an April 23 executive session of the body. It was understood that he might have an opportunity to remain with the commission as an engineer.

DO LUTHERANS BELIEVE THEIRS IS THE ONLY TRUE RELIGION?

Yes. But they do not believe that they are the only ones who have it.

Someone has aptly defined "true religion" as, "Accepting what God wants to give you." And Lutherans know that no one denomination has a monopoly on those who "accept what God wants to give."

But Lutherans also realize that again and again throughout history, men have tried to dilute that which God most wants to give: The Gospel of Christ.

And because the Gospel is the power through which God works in man, Lutherans know that any "watering down" of the Gospel is a blasphemy against God and a danger to human souls.

That is why Lutherans are not among those who say, "One church is the same as the next!" or, "It doesn't make much difference what you believe, just so you believe!"

If you drink strychnine, believing it to be cough syrup, it makes a great deal of difference.

And if you trust your own goodness, believing God to be satisfied with it—or, if you belittle God-on-a-cross, believing Him to be merely a fine moral example—that makes a great deal of difference, too. An eternal difference!

That is why both children and adults are thoroughly instructed in the faith before being received as Lutheran communicants. It does make a difference what you believe!

TO RECEIVE DEGREE — John M. Gornall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gornall, Macdonald Terrace, will receive his bachelor of science degree in public relations Saturday at the University of Maryland. An Allegany High School graduate, he is on the staff of the university radio station, is a member of Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity, and won an award as columnist of the year for his work on the campus newspaper and magazine.

Workshop For Blind Branch Planned Here

The Maryland Workshop for the Blind will establish a branch workshop in Western Maryland this year, according to State Senator Charles M. See.

Senator See said he presumes the branch will be located in Cumberland, the largest city in Western Maryland.

He added that William S. Rathford, superintendent of the workshop, is scheduled to come to Cumberland soon to begin looking for suitable quarters for the shop.

Funds for the branch were provided by the recent General Assembly. Senator See said. The Legislature, he said, did not specify the site, except that it was to be in Western Maryland.

He said the unit will be opened after July 1 in rented quarters and will necessarily be on a small scale.

Senator See said that the Maryland Workshop for the Blind was established by an act of the 1908 General Assembly, and that it was not possible for many years to establish branch workshops since the law specifically stated it was to be located in Baltimore. A 1955 act, he said, authorized the workshop to establish branches throughout the state, and the Cumberland branch will be the first results of the 1955 statute. Sen. See is a trustee of the workshop, which is conducted by the state for the training and employment of adult blind citizens of Maryland.

That's the estimate of Manuel A. Vilato, general manager of Camioneros Equipos Mecanicos, S. A. Vilato said his plants now were assembling between 1,500 and 2,000 trucks annually.

Board Action Set On AHS Project

The Allegany County Board of Education met this afternoon to discuss awarding bids on excavation work at Allegany High School, cafeteria equipment at Northeast Elementary School and the dealing of property on the site of the new Bruce High School to Westernport.

Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools, said three bids have been received for the excavation work and four bids for the cafeteria equipment.

A deed to property in Westernport has been prepared and will be presented to Mayor Okey E. Michaels and town officials.

A water tank is to be erected on the property to improve water facilities for Greene's Addition residents and the housing project being sponsored by the Lake mill of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company.

A meeting of the Western Maryland Section of the Holy Name Society will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Maryland date picnic grounds on Oldtown Road. Members and families are asked to bring picnic lunches to the grounds.

Elmer Finally Pays Visit To Doctor

By ELMER WHEELER

After finding that hole in my hair, not due, of course, to the guy giving me treatments, but caused perhaps from old age, improper diet or moths, I made a decision.

It took me months of self-treatment as a false, before I saw my doc, so now after the months of self-education, I again Fort Hill High School Class of came to this lucky decision. 1947 will meet today at 7:30 p. m. at the school.

"I explained that I had a large hole in my hair."

Didn't the doc set me right? I be talking to him and getting on my calories when my home-made methods and listening to the tall tales of my friends had failed? In fact, I had put on an extra eight pounds.

Anyhow, I saw it was time (with holes in my hair, no less) to see him. I phoned for an appointment.

I explained that I had a large hole in my hair and needed some fast and expert advice before I ended up in a hair dolly factory.

"I guess you've been giving yourself some home treatments to save a doctor's bill, eh?" he smirked.

"I assured him it was nothing like that. In fact, I was paying very expensive fees to a scalp specialist. I told him I had tried homemade remedies but if I could save a buck and get cured in a drugstore or barbershop, what of it?"

"Didn't do much good," he said, "eh, son?"

"No, it didn't, I admitted; otherwise, why in thunder would I read every line of what the guy said who talked with the fellow who personally visited the medicine man who told how his brother in the next battle area discovered the hair grower. I told my doc the ingredients this African cure-all for the head had in it. He offered to mix some up if I went to the drug-store and got the stuff.

He made up a whole bottle. It sure smelled bad but after all isn't that the basic requirement of good medicine, anyway?

I was so pleased with the re-

WESTERNPORT—Mayor Okey

F. Michael and Council last night announced that the tax rate for the Town of Westernport will remain at $1 per $100 in assessable property.

Announcement came during the regular meeting of council. The budget was set at $120,000.74 for the coming year.

Beginning July 1, salaried town employees will receive a wage increase of $10 per month. Hourly workers will get five cents an hour.

Mrs. Katherine G. Dailey was named town clerk for two years and Burza Hantlin was re-appointed bailiff or chief of police.

Applications for police work were received from Samuel W. McCarty of Piedmont, Hugh W. Cook of Lonaconing and Richard L. Clark of Westernport. Salaries were set as follows:

Mayor $500; Commissioners, $250 and treasurer, an additional $50. Commissioner Ray L. Will holds the latter position.

Other appointments included Alvin Pence, real estate and building inspector. Members of the Appeal Zoning Board are Will, one year; Harry Richards, two years and George Failing, three years.

The town plans to employ two police women to handle traffic during the noon hours at Church and Main Streets in the fall due to the expansion project at the Luke mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company. They will work approximately nine hours per week.

Mayor Michael reported $78.52 was collected from parking meters and violators last week. Last month $349.84 was paid on the parking meter note to the Citizens National Bank, leaving a balance of $14,734.77.

Elmer Morris, Howard Dumivan and John B. Travis requested permission to install a pump near the new Bruce High School to improve the supply of water in that area. No action was taken by council.

Council will meet today at 8 p. m. to discuss the matter of providing the new section with water, and also to fix the rate.

Several new leaks in the water lines have occurred within the past few days. The latest was discovered today in an eight-inch line at Johnson and Poplar Streets.

Members of council will meet June 12 at 5 p. m. with Lee Haines, engineer for Glace and Glaze, Harrisburg, Pa.

Report Clarified

By Mayor James

FROSTBURG—Mayor Joseph James stated today that the complaint received at Monday evening's council meeting concerning the jelling of printing orders to an out-of-state concern should be clarified. He pointed out that the order was not placed with an out-of-state concern, but with a business in Frostburg which sells a complete line of office supplies.

James said the actual printing may have been done elsewhere, but the actual purchase was made locally. He said he regretted any misunderstanding and hoped that all city business in any one department could not be given to any one concern year after year.

Clarke Renamed To Mayor's Post In Moorefield

MOOREFIELD—C. W. Clarke, without opposition, has been elected to his sixth two-year term as mayor of Moorefield, receiving 205 votes in Tuesday's election.

Mrs. Helen Rexroad was named to her third term as recorder, also without opposition, with 220 votes.

Following is the vote for council:

E. L. Puffenberger, 195; Ted R. Sager, 132; C. B. Hiett, 184; Ted Burns, 151; J. W. Rohrbaugh, 193; Deval Schell, 178; Irvin G. Bowman, 132; C. H. Combs, 105.

Elected were Puffenberger, Hiett, Rohrbaugh, Schell and Bowman, all but Puffenberger and Schell are holdovers. Hiett has been on council for the past 19 years.

The closest race was between Bowman and Burns, the former losing out the latter by one vote for the fifth councilmanic position.

Season To Open

Hundreds of fishermen will line the banks of Hardy County streams at 5:02 Saturday morning when the black bass season opens in West Virginia. The season will remain open until March 9, 1958.

Bag limit on bass, including both small mouth and large mouth, is eight per day or 60 for the season. Since there is no size limit on bass this year sportsmen will be using larger bait in the hope of landing the big ones.

Bass waters are in prime condition and should remain this way unless heavy rains muddy the streams between now and Saturday.

Mt. City Pool Opening Set For Saturday

FROSTBURG—Pellsworth Filer, 59 Linden Street, who was recently appointed manager of the community swimming pool, announces that the pool will be officially opened Saturday.

The pool will operate daily from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m. Life guards will be on duty at all times, according to Filer.

Miss Maureen Manley, senior Red Cross swimming instructor, will give lessons at the pool again this year, beginning immediately following the close of school. Children planning on registering should contact Miss Manley along with their parents to make necessary arrangements.

Delegates Named

The Midlothian Homemakers club named Mrs. Herman Winters and Miss Edith Ritchie as delegates to attend the Rural Women's Short Course at the University of Maryland at a meeting of the club in the home of Mrs. Ruth Whitfield, 15 East Main Street, last night.

Mrs. Paul Barnett, president, was in charge of the session which opened with the members reciting the "Homemakers Creed."

Following the singing of "This Is My Father's World" by the entire group, Mrs. Blaine Willets gave the history of the hymn and Mrs. Peggy Pratt gave a book report on "Speak to the Winds."

Mrs. Mason Diehl, who attended a demonstration at the Court House recently, gave a report on the project of re-naming chairs.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess. The president announced that the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Matthew Willets.

Bible School Set

The annual daily vacation Bible School sponsored by the United Council of Church Women will open Monday instead of June 17 as previously planned.

Opening exercises at the school will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 9 a. m. after which the children will leave for their classrooms. Primary, junior and intermediate departments will meet at First Methodist Church while pre-school children of the nursery and kindergarten classes will meet at St. Paul's Church.

Due to a short session of the public schools on Tuesday morning, the Bible School will not open until 10:30 a. m. on that day, and will close at noon. All other sessions will open at 9 a. m. and close at 11:30 a. m.

Registration Set

Ladies of the Lay Health Group will be in charge of registration when the chestmobile visits Frostburg next week. Chest X-rays will be taken Monday from 1 until 7 p. m. and on Tuesday from 1 to 4 p. m.

The registration committee will be at the firemen's hall before noon Monday to register those wishing to have chest X-rays taken. This service is sponsored by the Allegany-Garrett Tuberculosis Association, and is directly financed by the annual sale of Christmas seals.

Mrs. Lois Jackson, Allegany county health nurse, announces a well baby clinic will be held in the health room of City Hall on June 13.

All children who will start to school in September should be brought to this clinic for their smallpox and polio immunization shots.

Six Mineral County Places Have Beer Licenses Lifted

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Six Mineral County establishments had their beer licenses suspended yesterday by Beer Commissioner Roy D. Platt.

All were suspended for 60 days, except the license of Veterans Memorial Home in Keyser, which loses its license for 30 days on a charge of possession of liquor. All suspensions became effective at noon tomorrow.

The other licenses suspended and the charges listed by Platt were:

Knobley Mountain Post, American Legion, Ridgeley, possession and sale of liquor.

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6667, Fort Ashby, exhibiting a gaming device.

American Legion Post 52, Piedmont, exhibiting a gaming device and selling liquor.

Isomene Panette, doing business as City Restaurant, Keyser, exhibiting a gaming device.

Loyal Order of Moose, Piedmont, exhibiting a gaming device. Charges against the six licenses were made by State Police on March 24 and 29.

Dance Stated Today

McCOOLE—The Teen Canteen will honor local area members of this year's graduating class at Bruce High School, the American Revolution and the Westernport, with a dance this evening. The families of the graduates and friends may also attend. Music will be by "Mr. and Mrs. Rhythm."

Homecoming Event Stated

LONACONING—The Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church will sponsor a ham supper during Homecoming Week.

Tuesday, July 2, the supper will be served at 5, 6 and 6:30 p. m. A candy sale will be held by the Methodist Youth Fellowship on the lawn outdoors the same evening.

Tuesday, June 25, will be the next meeting instead of Monday, July 1. The group will request Rev. Carl E. Price, pastor, that the installation be held at this meeting instead of having the ceremony at a worship service on a Sunday.

Mrs. Florence Duckworth, president, presided at the meeting this week with 16 members attending. A hymn, "Trust and Obey" was sung to open the program.

Mrs. Ferrie Lauder was in charge of the devotional service. "Have Thine Own Way Lord" was sung. Mrs. Martha Humphrey gave closing prayer.

Mrs. Mary Ann Moore, Mrs. Rebecca Wilson, Mrs. Clementine Wilson, Mrs. Emma Wilkes and Miss Eleanor Evans were refreshments.

The address to the graduates was given by Rev. Archie C. Prevalle, pastor of First Baptist Church, Cumberland. Robinette gave the salutatory and Miss Heavner the valedictory. Invocation and benediction were by Rev. Edward H. Henshaw, pastor of Frostburg Methodist Church. Music by the school orchestra and chorus was under direction of Monroe Harris.

Frostburg Asks Filtration Plant Engineer Tests

FROSTBURG—The Mayor and Frostburg Civil Service Board to draw up a set of examination tests for an assistant filtration plant engineer.

It was pointed out that the engineer at the city filtration plant on Big Savage Mountain has a very responsible position, and should be taken ill or called away from his duties for any reason, the water department has no qualified man ready to assume the duties of the job. Such a situation could cause considerable confusion, it was stated, and it is necessary that the filtration plant be kept in operation efficiently at all times.

For this reason, city spokesmen said it was thought best to have the Civil Service Board prepare suitable tests and conduct an examination, and recommend several qualified citizens for this position.

Sixth graders that have attended school this year without missing a day are Kay Simpkins, Stanley and Donald Hansrote, George and Thomas Hartman, Robert Hagenbuch, Shirley Edwards and William Johnson. Refreshments were served by the fifth graders.

Wall Street Hears

NEW YORK — (INS) — Wall Street Hears: What happens after the demand for oil slimmers down? Thomson & McKinnon asks the question and then answers it with: "Perhaps the rails will then be able to take over the leadership." The firm declares the rail group seems to be in an improving position

Low's of the 3-month base range have not been violated, and adds that there are "interesting technical patterns for Coast Line, B. & O., St. Paul, Denver, Rio Grande, Central, Northern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Union Pacific, Southern Railway."

Second half operations may be more favorable for the meat packers, but little over-all improvement is expected this year. Brunswick-Balke-Collender net this year may reach $7 a share, which would compare with $6.15 in 1956 and $2.52 in 1955

Columbia Pictures income for the 12-month ending June 30 expected to be below the $2.22 of the previous period

Although first half sales of U. S. Tobacco are a bit behind a year ago, full year net may top the $1.46 reported last year

Baltimore Gas & Electric, in the midst of a $40 million expenditure program, will come in to the market for more funds late this year or early in 1958

Market comment — Kenneth Ward of Hayden, Stone & Company: "Although some profit-taking or switching still seems advisable from time to time, a longer term selectively bullish approach should continue to pay off."

County Notes Decrease In Building Permits

The Allegany County Assessor's Department records show that the total value and number of building permits in May was lower than for the same month last year.

Last month there were 30 permits issued for construction, which the builders said would cost a total of $130,390. A year ago 40 permits were obtained and the total estimated cost of construction was $134,800.

News Briefs Of Business

NEW YORK — (INS) — Texas Co. Chairman Augustus C. Long today estimated the oil industry will invest $60 billion to meet increasing world petroleum demands in the next five years. He said about half the investment will be abroad, but warned that this "enormous commitment of capital cannot be made, however, unless the political and financial climate both here and abroad is conducive."

NEW YORK — (INS) — R. H. Macy & Co. today reported increased sales and earnings in the quarter ended May 4. Sales rose about $10 million to $97,971,000 and earnings amounted to $574,000, or 18 cents per share, compared with $475,000, or 12 cents, in the corresponding period of 1956.

Agriculture News Briefs

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Agriculture Department scientists at New Orleans, La., will soon start to use radioactive cobalt to step up their search for new uses of cotton and other crops.

In announcing this yesterday, the department said future research calls for radiation treatments to help create useful new products from pine gum, tung oil and castor oil.

Cotton is the first commodity scheduled for radiation study. Scientists believe that "cobalt 60" will provide them with a faster and more accurate means of determining how various modifications affect the chemical reactivity and physical properties of cotton.

Radiation research is also planned on cottonseed products and fruits and vegetables.

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The Agriculture Department purchased 270,000 pounds of dried whole egg solids this week to help stabilize producer prices.

This week's purchases, the equivalent of approximately 27,000 cases of shell eggs, bring the total to date to 4,050,000 pounds since the egg-solid buying program was announced March 20.

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Higher food marketing charges are in sight.

Agricultural Department officials point out that marketing charges for food rose in the first quarter of this year and predict further increases during the rest of 1957.

Officers Installed By Jaycees, Awards Given

The Cumberland Junior Association of Commerce installed officers last night in ceremonies at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

Awards were also presented at the event, which was observed as "ladies night" with a dinner and dance.

Kenneth J. Williams, retiring president, turned over the gavel to Robert A. Mathews, new president. Other incoming officers are Arthur S. Davis Jr. and Richard A. Sell, vice presidents; Raymond H. Lapp Jr., state director; Glen R. Brant, secretary, and Rodney Pariser, treasurer.

K. R. Legge Victim Area Car Accident

Piedmont Youth Passenger In Auto Driven By Earl Conn

A 19-year-old Piedmont youth was killed early this morning in a highway accident on Route 219 at Summit Township, Pa.

Killed was Kenneth Richard Legge, who had been attending a convention of the Allegheny-Garrett County Volunteer Firemen's Association in Grantsville as a member of Tri-Towns Fire Company 1 of Piedmont.

The youth was a passenger in an automobile operated by Earl William Conn, 31, of 215 Walnut Street, Westport, Conn., who apparently escaped injury in the accident, is being held in Somerset County (Pa.) jail. A former resident of Cumberland, he is a graduate of LaSalle High School.

Another passenger in the car, Thomas Bryan, 31, of Second Street, Piedmont, was admitted to Meyersdale (Pa.) Community Hospital with facial and neck injuries. Attaches reported him in "good" condition at noon.

Pennsylvania State Police said the Legge youth was dead on arrival at the Meyersdale hospital. Troopers A. K. Oleskey and N. L. Harvy, who are investigating, said the car operated by Conn ran off the highway and crashed into a telephone pole.

Cause of the mishap has not been determined, and no charges have been preferred pending completion of the investigation. Unconfirmed reports indicated that the trio was enroute to Meyersdale from the convention site when the accident occurred.

Born in Piedmont, the deceased was a son of Mrs. Hazel (Flick) Legge, with whom he resided, and the late Charles R. Legge. A 1956 graduate of Piedmont High School, he was a member of the Air National Guard unit at Martinsburg, the Tri-Towns Fire Company and Piedmont Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Surviving, besides his mother, are a brother, Charles Legge, at home, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Riegman, Piedmont.

The body is at the Boal Funeral Home, Westport, where services will be conducted Sunday at 2 p. m. by Rev. Rex Coffman, pastor of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. Interment will be in Philos Cemetery, Westport.

Jailed Men Wanted For Questioning

Two District of Columbia men who were arrested in Romney Tuesday evening as the result of a hit-run accident near that Hampshire County, W. Va., community are wanted by Washington authorities for questioning in connection with bad check charges.

Sgt. W. F. Bowley, who is in charge of the West Virginia State Police detachment at Romney, said a Purgisville truck driver, Charles Shoemaker, 49, telephoned that his vehicle had been rammed by a 1953 model sedan bearing District of Columbia license plates while both vehicles were traveling west on U. S. Route 50.

Authorities stopped a vehicle answering the description and arrested the driver, Carl Gehrig, 39, of Washington. Occupants of the car, besides the driver, were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kropp, also of Washington.

Gehrig was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace A. L. Russell and sentenced to ten days in the county jail on the hit-run charge, while Kropp received a similar sentence on a charge of being intoxicated.

Sgt. Bowley said a routine check with D. C. authorities revealed the two men are wanted for questioning in connection with bad check charges. The automobile in which the trio was traveling is alleged to have been purchased with a bad check. Sgt. Bowley added.

District of Columbia authorities are expected to be on hand when the two men are released from the Romney jail, according to Sgt. Bowley.

School Holds Closing Event

Columbia Street School held its closing exercise yesterday afternoon, with the principal speaker being Mrs. Joseph Keefe, R. N., the mother of one of the students.

The program opened with a procession, with Mrs. Grace Swanson as accompanist. The pledge to the flag was led by the 47 members of the school's graduating class. A piano solo was presented by Kent Allison and a poem recited by Judy Nee.

Leo Herboldsheimer and Gary Hendricks played a piano duet and orchestral selection were presented by Kenneth Malcolm's first and second year students. Presentation of certificates was by Miss Catherine E. Thomas, principal, and the concluding prayer was led by Mrs. Walter Herath. Choral readings and songs were featured.

The annual sixth grade party was held last week in the school auditorium. Games and dances were held, prizes awarded and refreshments served.

As a culminating activity of the sixth grade science unit on wild life and conservation, the class was taken on a tour of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal near Paw Paw, W. Va., by Regional Game Warden Joseph Minke.

Accompanying the class on the trip to the canal were Samuel Lisanti, teacher in charge, Mrs. Isaac Metzler, R. N., Mrs. Paul Hartung, Mrs. Charles Meagher, Herman Strachan and Ward Wilson.

School To Present Farewell Assembly

Pennsylvania Avenue School will hold its farewell assembly tomorrow at 1:30 p. m., according to Miss Lulu M. Blonsky, principal.

Songs by the sixth grade students will precede farewell songs by seventh grade students. Miss Blonsky will give a brief talk and also give recognition to students who have done outstanding work during the present school term.

Juvenile Delinquency Rate Continues Steady In County

Juvenile delinquency continued at a steady pace during May, according to figures released this morning by Fred J. Anderson, Magistrate for Juvenile Causes.

The report, compiled monthly by John Jeffries, probation officer, reveals that 56 cases were heard during the month in Juvenile Court. During April 55 cases were tried.

Half the cases tried last month concerned adults. The classification of county cases before the court included 29 delinquent juveniles, four custody cases, eight contributing to the delinquency of minors, three contributing to the neglect of children, one uniform support and 19 non-support.

The reasons for the referral of juveniles were two assaults, two being unprovoked, one chronic runaway, three disorderly conduct, one sex offense, four robberies, seven school problems, two motor vehicle violations, two for discharging firearms within the city limits and four non-delinquent acts.

Parents referred five of the cases to the court, police 15, Department of Education six, Welfare Department one and one from an unrelated individual.

Twenty-five of the juveniles had no previous record, while three had one previous conviction, and two were "two-time losers."

Fourteen lived with both parents, 11 with their mothers, one with his father and three with relatives.

Ten of the minors received warnings, four had their cases continued, three were turned over to the Welfare Board, one committed to a correctional institution, six were fined, one ordered to make restitution and one received a suspended sentence.

Three adults had petitions withdrawn, two had cases dismissed, one was warned, one sentenced to a correctional institution, one placed on regular probation, 12 received suspended sentences, seven ordered to pay support and one ordered to pay uniform support.

During May a total of $16,434.41 was collected for support payments by the court. At the end of May a total of 67 juvenile males and 14 juvenile females were on probation, while three men and three women were on regular probation.

Greyhound Asks Higher Rates On W. Va. Routes

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Eastern Greyhound Lines will appear before the Public Service Commission Monday for a hearing on a request for higher fares on West Virginia routes.

The application affects the West Virginia portions of runs between Clarksburg, Morgantown and Uniontown, Pa., and between Parkersburg, Clarksburg, Romney and Winchester, Va.

The annual sixth grade party was held last week in the school auditorium. Games and dances were held, prizes awarded and refreshments served.

As a culminating activity of the sixth grade science unit on wild life and conservation, the class was taken on a tour of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal near Paw Paw, W. Va., by Regional Game Warden Joseph Minke.

Liquor Post Clarification Is Sought

Opinion Requested On Governor's Power To Name Chairman

Conjecture over the delay of Estel C. Kelley, city, in qualifying as a member of the Allegheny County Board of Alcohol Beverage License Commissioners increased today.

The board met Tuesday and organized with Stanley O. Hamilton being named chairman. Kelley had been contacted by board members to determine if he planned to qualify and assume his duties. He informed them he was not ready. Howard M. Vandegriff, the Democratic member of the board, voted with Hamilton for the latter as chairman.

Request Confirmed

An unimpeachable source here said the governor's office had called late yesterday afternoon to say that a request had been made to that office for it to obtain a ruling from the attorney general on whether the governor's appointment of Kelley was as chairman of the board.

Kelley, when contacted by the Evening Times, said he did not want to discuss the matter but that "several things are hanging fire." He would neither confirm or deny that he knew about the request to the governor's office.

Kelley commented that "I am still a member of the House of Delegates" and said he would not like to comment on the Liquor Board situation as a result. In order to qualify as a member of the board he would have to resign as a member of the House from this county. Kelley said he has 30 days in which to qualify.

Proposed By Committee

Kelley was recommended for the post on the board by the Allegheny County Republican Committee and his appointment was announced last month by Gov. McKeldin. Walter C. Capper, chairman of the board, ended his term of office May 31.

Capper was specifically named in a 1951 law as chairman of the board. The other two board members named at that time were Hamilton, for a six-year term, and the late Oliver H. Bruce Jr., for a two-year term.

Bruce was the Democratic minority member of the board. In 1953 the law was reconstituted with the governor appointing three members of the board but in the opinion of local attorneys the law does not provide that the governor name the board chairman.

SIAC Appeal Case Started

Testimony was begun in Circuit Court today in the appeal of Clarence Mellett from a ruling by the State Industrial Accident Commission in a workman's compensation case.

Mellett, who had been employed by the Baughman Construction Company, was injured while at work. The appeal is being heard by a jury with Associate Judge Morgan C. Harris presiding.

Mellett is represented by Edward J. Ryan and William L. Wilson while the Baughman firm is represented by W. Earle Cobby and C. William Gilchrist.

Reunion Meeting

The reunion committee of the 1947 Fort Hill High School graduating class will meet today at 7:30 p. m. at the school. All members of the group are to attend as a financial report will be presented.

Operators To Meet

Local 37-B, Operating Engineers, will hold a special meeting today at 8 p. m. in the Labor Temple.

DIPLOMA FOR DAUGHTER—Joseph M. Miller, a member of the Allegheny County Board of Education, presented diplomas to 207 Allegheny High seniors last night but the big moment came when he awarded his daughter, Martha, her diploma. He is shown making the presentation at the 59th commencement in the school auditorium.

Three LaSalle Teachers Get New Positions

Brothers Nicholas, William and Michael Leaving Local School

The transfer of three members of the LaSalle High School teaching staff and their replacements was announced today by Brother George Paulian, principal.

Transferred were Brother Gerardus Nicholas and Brother Emory William to LaSalle College High School, Philadelphia, and Brother Eric Michael, to West Catholic High School, Philadelphia.

Here Seven Years

Brother Nicholas has been in Cumberland for seven years and taught sciences. He has gained national recognition while here in this area. He was recently elected president of the National Society of Specologists. He will teach biology and sciences at Philadelphia.

Brother William, also has been on the LaSalle faculty for seven years teaching Latin and German. Brother Michael, here for two years, has taught science, typing and algebra.

Come From Philadelphia

Brother Nicholas will be replaced by Brother Edmund Pius; Brother William by Brother Gabriel Mark, and Brother Michael by Brother Fidelis Celestine. All the new teachers have been in Philadelphia schools.

The principal also announced Brother Thomas will succeed Brother William as sub-director of the Christian Brothers community here, and vice principal of the high school.

Brother Paulian said classes for freshmen will start Wednesday, September 4. The remainder of the high school will report Thursday, September 5, and for a half-day session. Full day sessions will begin Friday, September 6.

O'Donnell Receives Insurance Award

Norbert B. O'Donnell, local representative of the Atlantic Life Insurance Company, has been presented the National Quality Award by the National Association of Life Underwriters and the Life Insurance Agency Management Association. This award, one of the coveted honors in the life insurance profession, has been received by O'Donnell for the past three years.

W. Maryland Being Filmed

The overcast skies of this week have been holding up the filming of the Western Maryland Railway's operations on its Western Division.

Joseph M. Miller, division superintendent, said the railroad's film, "Fast Freight Rolling," which was one of the features of the golden anniversary in 1952, has become outdated.

That featured the railroad's steam power. But since that time, the carrier has converted entirely to Diesel power.

That has necessitated in a modernization of the railroad's film.

William J. Comer Gets Commission In Army

William J. Comer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Comer, 303 East Oldtown Road, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army when he received his degree at LaSalle College, Philadelphia, yesterday.

He is a graduate of LaSalle High School here and majored in social sciences. Comer was president of the Residence Council and also of the Education Society.

Blaze Levels Home In Area

A Hampshire County, W. Va., home was destroyed by fire early this morning, largely because of the remote section in which it was located.

Harold Welker, assistant fire chief of the Romney Volunteer Fire Company, said the five-room home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Miller near Points was a total loss, with the family able to save only a few clothes from the flames.

Miller, it was reported, had arisen early to light a fire in a stove at his home. The fire of the home caught fire at approximately 4:30 a. m. and because of the remoteness of the location of the home it was about an hour before the Romney Company received a call for help.

Chief Welker pointed out that besides having to travel about 20 miles, firefighting equipment was stalled at the Little Cacapon River where a ford was washed out. Members responding to the call helped carry some equipment across the river but the fire had about burned out by the time they arrived at the scene.

It could not be determined whether any of the loss was covered by insurance. Chief Welker said. The frame home was covered with siding, he added.

Local Blind Student To Receive Diploma

A Cumberland student is one of four graduates of the Maryland School for the Blind who will receive their diplomas in commencement exercises Sunday at 2:30 p. m. in Frederick.

He is William Zuffel. The address to the graduates will be delivered by Governor McKeldin.

Trout Death Still Mystery For Experts

Examination At Hatchery Fails To Disclose Reason

An examination of the large brown trout found dead in Blue Spring of Canada House on North Mechanic Street has failed to disclose the cause of death.

Cecil C. Edwards, fish culturist assistant for the State Game and Inland Fish Commission, reported to William H. Buchholz, city street commissioner, on his tests.

Buchholz sent 11 of the trout to the Bear Creek Hatchery at Accident after they were found dead at the bottom of the water in the spring.

No Foreign Materials

Two others lived for a day or so, but they too finally died. Edwards reported the air bladders in the fish were intact and there were no foreign materials in their stomachs.

He added that it would appear that something in the water had depleted the oxygen supply. "Whether this was caused by blasting or some other cause, we cannot say. Perhaps the analysis of the water samples taken by Joseph A. Minke, regional game warden, will show us the reason," he stated.

Buchholz said Minke expects a report on the water analysis in the next day or so.

Attraction For Children

The brown trout ranged in size from 15 to 28 inches. The largest one weighed 16½ pounds. Buchholz noted.

For years, the trout had been attractions at the old hose house. There the late Frederick C. "Buck" Dreyer would delight the children by his "trained" fish.

He would blow a whistle and the fish would jump. The secret of the fish was small pieces of hamburger which he would toss into the water, unbeknownst to the little spectators, as he blew the whistle.

Buchholz said that recently a broken oil line polluted Pea Vine Run, killing fish, snakes and ducks, and he theorized that this could have been a similar situation at Blue Spring.

State AFL-CIO Merger Vote Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Maryland-District Federation of Labor convention was scheduled to vote today on a proposal to merge the Maryland-District of Columbia AFL and CIO organizations.

The merger vote was postponed again yesterday on motion of Edward Johns of Baltimore. "I think we all favor the merger," he said. "We just want to discuss several points it raises."

Federation members say the new constitution, which would give union locals one convocation vote for each 100 members, would enable larger CIO locals to dominate the smaller AFL units. The federation now limits locals to 10 votes each.

Harry Cohen of Baltimore was reelected president of the federation yesterday for the 10th time. Cohen defeated Francis Filbey, president of the Baltimore Federation of Labor, by a 4-1 margin.

Pharmacists Elect Timmons President

W. Dale Timmons was elected president of the Allegheny County Pharmaceutical Association at a meeting this week at the Algonquin Hotel.

Other officers for 1957-58 are Robert F. Tomsko, vice president, and Robert F. Nierman, secretary-treasurer.

The new executive committee is composed of Arthur H. Spano, Robert P. Keech, William Sullivan and James A. McMichael.

Midshipmen Hoping For Good Weather

Rain Puts Crimp On Some Outdoor Annapolis Events

ANNAPOLIS — Water-logged midshipmen and their dripping "drags" at the U. S. Naval Academy hoped today for some clear weather that would permit the 1957 color parade to be held outdoors.

The parade, set for 3:30 p.m. on Worden Field, has been planned as the last and most colorful of four dress parades on the June Week schedule. The weather man forecasts more showers.

Monday's parade was rained out, and a drizzle on Tuesday, plus yesterday's steady downpour, put a crimp in several other events on the crowded seven-day program of graduation activities.

If the color parade is forced into Dahlgren Hall by bad weather today, the shift should cause no hitch in the ceremonies.

A rehearsal for the colorful climax of the ceremony had to be held indoors yesterday for the first time in more than 25 years.

Miss Catherine Keith Bacon, pretty 20-year-old brunette from Knoxville, Tenn., who is the 1957 color girl, practiced transferring the national and brigade flags from the old color company to the new as photographers took her picture over and over again.

Then she kissed Midshipman William M. Mickle of Vashon, Wash., commander of the 3rd Company which was named last week as best in the Brigade on the basis of year-long competition in athletics, scholarship and drill with the other 23 companies in the brigade.

She will review today's parade with Rear Adm. William R. Smedberg III, academy superintendent, before transferring the colors in the traditional color-girl fittings of ankle-length dress and broad-brimmed hat.

A farewell ball tonight and graduation exercises tomorrow will wind up the festivities. The new senior, junior and sophomore classes will embark Saturday for their summer training programs.

A round of 54 weddings of seniors and their sweethearts will start in the academy chapel tomorrow and continue through next week. Many other new graduates will be married at churches in town here or in hometown ceremonies throughout the country.

The graduation exercise, at which undersecretary of the Navy William B. Franke will be speaker, will be held at 11 a. m.

First in line for the diplomas will be Forrest R. Hanvey Jr. of Anaheim, Calif., whose 3.74 average out of a possible 4.0 placed him at the top of the class.

Anchor man in the class will be Robert L. Daughenbaugh of New Oxford, Pa., captain of the wrestling team. For his feat of having finished last and still managing to graduate, cheering classmates will hoist him to their shoulders while he waves a paper mache anchor when his company gets its diplomas.

To Attend World Meeting

CAMBRIDGE — Mayor Russell Smith and City Attorney Charles Edmondson of Cambridge took off for Europe today to attend the world-wide meeting of municipal officers.

The two flew to New York, where they were to catch a flight to Geneva, Switzerland.

They are due to return on July 1.

Water Rate Case Heard By State PSC

BALTIMORE — The Public Service Commission, reopening a 2-year-old Washington County water case under Circuit Court order, has held another session and recessed the hearing until June 26.

The dispute originated in 1955 when county communities supplied with water by Hagerstown complained about a rate increase by the city.

The PSC ordered a cut in the increase but the city appealed. Circuit Court generally approved the PSC action, except to say the fair value of the municipal water plant should be refigured on the basis of present holdings.

When the case was reopened yesterday, City Water Supt. Richard C. Willson testified that the only capital improvement since 1955 was the Williamsport flood control dam. PSC members had agreed testimony should be heard only on completed capital improvements.

The peoples' counsel submitted figures showing that the original increase to 60 cents per thousand gallons would bring a return of 8.3 per cent on the city's investment, against 5.8 per cent on the lower rate of 43 cents ordered by the PSC.

Needed Rain Falls In State

By The Associated Press

Maryland farmlands got some much-needed rain yesterday with sections of Southern Maryland and the Eastern Shore recording upwards of an inch.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at Friendship International Airport said rainfall of more than an inch was reported at Salisbury and Eastern on the Shore and at Waldorf and Waterloo west of the Chesapeake Bay.

More than two inches fell in the Rockville area and at Friendship in Borneo.

Other amounts in east, even portions of Maryland were between a half inch and an inch. Western Maryland got only light showers.

The outlook was for occasional rain today and tonight in Maryland and Delaware and adjacent areas of nearby states, with rain in Western Maryland limited to scattered thundershowers.

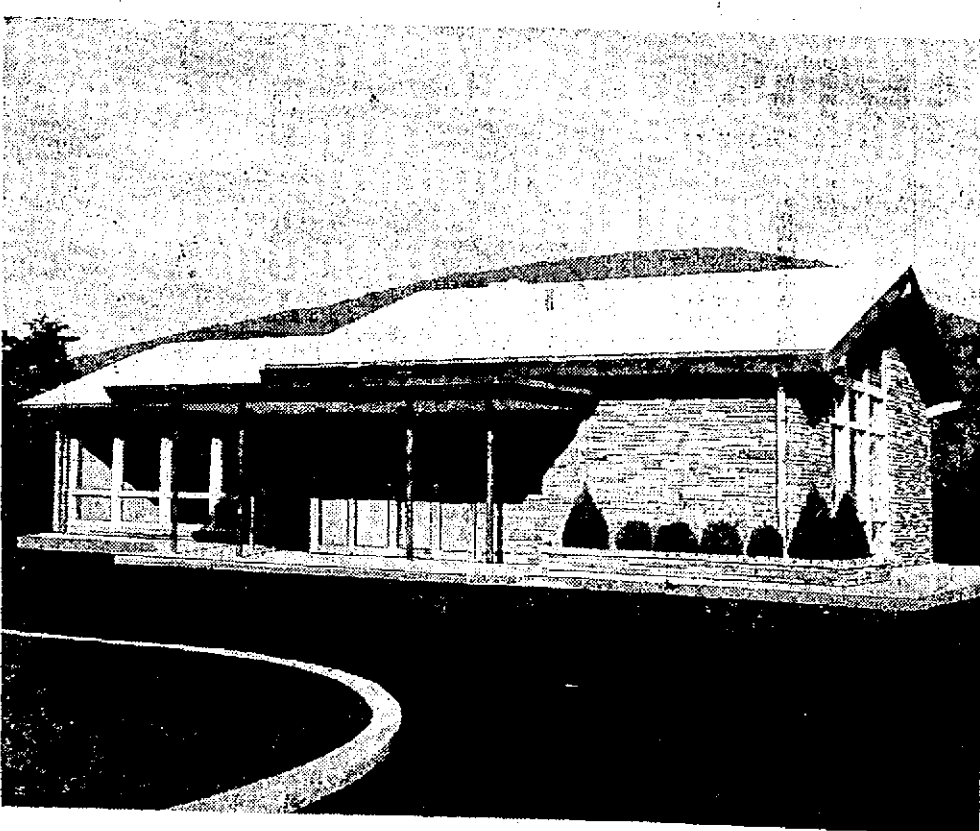

Diamonds are found in many stream beds and panned like gold in Borneo.

Quick Trick For Cookies

Quick trick for the cookie jar—if they'll last long enough to get there—are these sweet and crunchy pop puffs, delicious for tea time or after-school treats.

Made with a meringue base, the puffs combine sugar-coated puffed corn, chopped nuts and shredded coconut. And they actually can be whipped together, baked and ready to serve in a matter of minutes.

Pop Puffs

2 egg whites
¾ cup brown sugar
¼ teaspoon vanilla flavoring
2 cups sugar-coated puffed corn
½ cup chopped nuts
1 cup shredded coconut

Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Beat in sugar a tablespoonful at a time. Fold in remaining ingredients. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto well-greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) about 10 minutes. Remove at once from baking sheets.

Yield: 4½ dozen puffs, 1½ inches in diameter.

Special Broiled Chicken

Ingredients: 1 broiler-fryer (about 2½ pounds ready-to-cook weight), 1 tablespoon flour, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon dried crumbled basil, ¼ teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, ¼ cup tomato juice.

Method: Have chicken cut so there are 2 wings, 2 pieces of breast, 2 second joints, 2 drumsticks, 4 bony back pieces. (Giblets, neck and wing tips may be used for stock.) Wash and dry. Mix flour, salt, sugar, basil and paprika together on a sheet of waxed paper. Roll the chicken pieces in the mixture and place on broiling rack, skin side up. Melt butter and dribble over chicken. Broil several inches from high heat until chicken begins to brown. Turn and baste with tomato juice; place 6 or 7 inches from high heat and broil 20 to 30 minutes, basting a few times. Turn chicken skin side cavities; sprinkle with grated lemon rind. Serve hot. Makes 4 to 6 servings as a meat garnish.

STILTED SCULPTOR—Using stilt to get closer to his work, former sailor Barney West hangs away at this exotic nine-foot "Tiki" statue at his home in Larkspur, Calif. Impressed by the Easter Island and Polynesian carvings he saw while in the Merchant Marine, Barney has begun a new career by sculpting similar statues and selling them. A statue like this one—a Hawaiian family god—will sell for about $400.

Beverage

Ingredients: 4 to 6 drained canned peach halves, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, ½ teaspoon curry powder, grated rind of one-half of a lemon or lime.

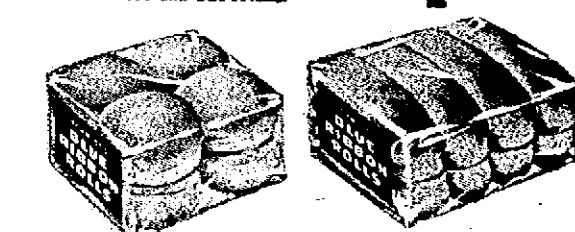

Method: Arrange peaches in shallow pan or on heavy aluminum foil with edges turned up to form a container. Blend butter and curry powder together; put a dollop of the mixture in the cavity of each peach half. Broil several inches from heat until peaches are brown. Spoon any juices that have run down back into cavities; sprinkle with grated lemon rind. Serve hot. Makes 4 to 6 servings as a meat garnish.

Enter Joy's $32,000 contest! You may WIN A SGT. BILKO MONEY TREE

1st Cash Prize ... $15,000 Money Tree
2nd Cash Prize ... $7,000 Money Tree
3rd Cash Prize ... $3,000 Money Tree
plus 7 additional Money Trees each worth $1000 cash

Write a last line for the JOY jingle in the entry blank below!

At last money does grow on trees! And the guy who's done it (wouldn't you guess?) is Sgt. Bilko. Fact is, Bilko's gone and raised 10 lovely Money Trees with a total of $32,000 in real cash sprouting on 'em. And you may win one just by writing a last line for a jingle about new gentle Joy—the one liquid that makes dishwashing almost nice.

It's easy to enter! Lots of fun, too. The first thing to do is buy a can of Joy and read the label. Then try Joy and see how it takes the greasiness out of dishwashing. You'll get lots of ideas that can help you write a winning last line. So take the money-saving Joy coupon below to your dealer today and get started. Print your last line in the entry blank below.

FOLLOW THESE EASY RULES

1. Complete the JOY jingle shown at the right. Print your last line to the jingle in the entry blank or on one side of a sheet of paper. Print your name and address plainly.
2. Mail to "Money Tree," Dept. C, Box 24, Cincinnati 99, Ohio. You can enter the contest as often as you like, but each entry must be accompanied by the number you copy from the bottom of any JOY can.
3. Entries must be postmarked no later than midnight, September 30, 1957, and must be received not later than October 15, 1957.
4. Entries will be judged for originality, rhyme, metre and aptness in completing the jingle. The judges' decision will be final. Except for accidental help from family and friends, entries must be wholly the work of the person in whose name the entry is submitted. Entries prepared in whole or in part by professional or compensated contest writers, schools, or services will be disqualified.
5. Only one prize will be awarded to any person. Duplicate prizes awarded in case of ties. No entries returned. Entries, contents and ideas therein being unconditionally and irrevocably assigned to Procter & Gamble for any and all purposes.
6. Any resident of the continental United States (including Alaska) and Hawaii may compete except employees of Procter & Gamble, its advertising agencies, and their families. Contest subject to government regulations.
7. There will be one first prize of $15,000, one second prize of $7,000, one third prize of $3,000, and 7 additional prizes of $1000 each. All winners will be notified by mail.

SAVE 8¢ ON JOY

whether you enter contest or not

Let's face it. Nothing can make dishwashing fun. But now gentle JOY does make it—well, almost nice. JOY, you see, puts an end to greasy dishwashing. Takes the greasy look and smell and feel out of dishwater. And JOY is gentle to your hands—it's been changed, you know—JOY is now milder than any other leading liquid. There's nothing else like JOY. Try it and see.

Chicken Dish Has Italian Twist

ARE YOU ADDICTED TO CASSEROLE COOKERY? Here's a new recipe for you today.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
LOOKING FOR A NEW chicken dish? Then you might like to try this casserole of chicken, spaghetti and tomato sauce.

Apart from the poultry, the makings for this dish can be right on your pantry shelf because the recipe utilizes a package of spaghetti dinner with its pasta, sauce and grated cheese. We tried this recipe adding tomato juice to the sauce; another time we added cooking sherry. We like both additions to take your choice!

CHICKEN AND SPAGHETTI CASSEROLE
Ingredients: 1 broiler-fryer (2 1/2 pounds ready-to-cook weight), 1/2 teaspoon salt, pepper, 1/2 teaspoon crushed dried oregano, 1/4 cup olive oil, 1 package spaghetti dinner (containing spaghetti and meatless mushroom sauce and grated cheese), 1/2 cup tomato juice.

Method: Have chicken cut so there are 2 pieces of breast, 2 wings, 2 drumsticks, 2 second joints and 4 pieces of bony back. Mix salt, pepper to taste and oregano and rub into chicken pieces. Brown chicken thoroughly in 10- or 12-inch skillet in hot oil. Cook spaghetti according to package directions, but undercook slightly because it will be put into the oven. Add tomato juice to chicken drippings in skillet along with the mushroom sauce from the package; stir over low heat with wooden spoon to get up any browned particles. Turn spaghetti into greased 2-quart casserole and mix with most of the sauce. Arrange browned chicken over spaghetti, pour remaining sauce over chicken. Sprinkle with grated cheese from the package. Cover and bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until chicken is tender—45 minutes to 1 hour. Makes 4 servings.

RAISIN OATMEAL MOLASSES COOKIES

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/2 cup dark molasses, 1/4 cup butter or margarine (melted), 1 cup quick cooking rolled oats, 1/2 cup seedless raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained), 1/2 cup coarsely broken walnut meats.

Method: Stir together the flour, baking soda, salt, cinnamon and sugar. In medium-sized mixing bowl beat egg until it begins to thicken and is lemon colored. Add molasses, melted butter and rolled oats; beat enough to mix well. Stir in raisins and walnut meats. Drop a couple of inches apart, by heaping teaspoonsfuls on a buttered baking sheet. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven about 10 minutes. Makes about 5 dozen small cookies.

Popularity Of Meats

According to studies on home makers' meat preferences, some of the most popular meat items, the ones most often purchased, are ground beef, frankfurters, pork chops, leg of lamb, boneless beef pot-roast, ham, round steak, T-bone steak, veal cutlets, and canned and ready-to-serve meats.

Versatility of Meat Cuts

Beef arm or round steak, veal round steak or pork arm shoulder steaks are excellent meat cuts to use when preparing beef, veal or pork birds.

Nuts Flavor Hungarian Dessert

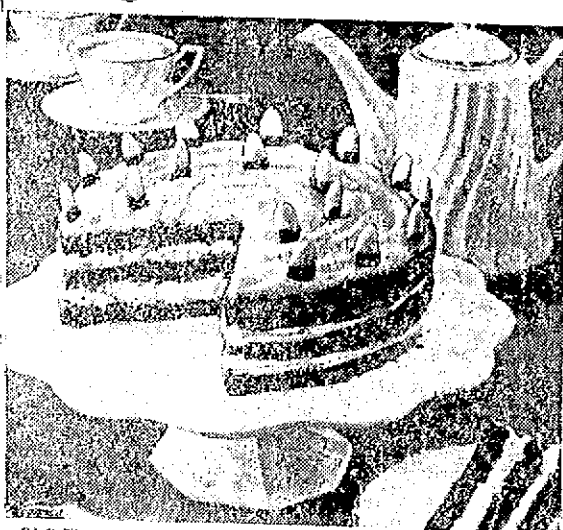

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Many Hungarian families now in this country have brought with them treasured recipes for torte.

These famous desserts are related to the cake family although they use little or no flour. Usually torte are made in round layers and richly filled and frosted.

The almonds that help make the base of the following torte may be put through a rotary-type hand-operated nut grater or they may be ground in a food chopper. Now that nutmeats are widely distributed in 5-ounce cans, each holding a convenient cupful, you can have them on hand on your kitchen shelves. Vacuum-packing assures freshness.

CHOCOLATE ALMOND TORTE
Ingredients: One 5-ounce can (1 cup) blanched almonds, 8 eggs (separated), 1 cup sugar, 1 1/2-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate pieces, 1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs. Filling and Frosting.
Method: Set aside 24 of the almonds for the garnish. Put remaining nuts through a rotary-type hand-operated nut grater or through a food chopper using the fine blade. With rotary beater (hand or electric), beat together the egg yolks and sugar until thick and lemon-colored. Measure 1/2 cup of the chocolate pieces and melt over hot, not boiling, water; stir into egg-yolk mixture with bread crumbs and grated almonds. With clean rotary beater (hand or electric) beat egg whites until stiff but not dry.

OLD-TIME HUNGARIAN DESSERT—Chocolate almond torte is a rich treasure.

fold into almost mixture. Turn ahead of time; in this case you into three round layer-cake pans will have to store it in the refrigerator (each 8 inches in diameter) until serving time. If you prepare pans by greasing hot-bottoms with waxed oil preserves and brandy or rum and greasing paper. Bake (flavoring well ahead so the two in slow (325 degrees) oven 25 to 30 minutes, or until torte surface spring back when touched lightly. Turn out on cooling racks and strip off paper. For garnish, melt remaining 1/2 cup chocolate pieces over hot, not boiling, water. Dip one end of each of the 24 almonds reserved for the garnish into the chocolate and place on waxed paper; refrigerate to set. (Any melted chocolate leftover may be refrigerated in a tightly covered container, then melted and used another time.) Put cake together with filling and frosting; insert almonds (chocolate-dipped ends down) in circles in top of cake. Makes 10 servings.

FILLING AND FROSTING
Ingredients: 1/2 cup of apricot preserves, rum or brandy flavoring, 1 1/2 cups heavy cream, 2 teaspoons instant coffee, sugar.
Method: Stir the rum or brandy flavoring (to taste) into the apricot preserves. Add the instant coffee to the cream; with rotary beater (hand or electric) beat cream until almost stiff. Gradually beat in sugar to taste—from 1 to 3 tablespoons. Spread apricot preserves over tops of 2 layers of the cool cake; top with some of the whipped cream; put together. Top with third layer and spread with remaining cream.

TESTING NOTE
When we prepared and served this torte it was much enjoyed by all our tasters. We made the cake layers in the morning, coated them and then covered them tightly. The layers can be handled carefully but gingerly without damage. Just before the torte was to be served as a dinner-time dessert, we put the layers together with the filling and frosting. But you can, of course, fill and frost the cake

Vitamins In Lamb

We all know the importance of vitamins in our daily diet... promoting health and guarding the body against disease. Lamb is a good source of the B vitamins—thiamine, riboflavin and niacin. These vitamins are found in abundance in lamb chops, roasts, steaks and other lamb dishes as well as other similar beef, pork and veal dishes. Meat—beef, veal, pork and lamb—is an excellent source of protein.

New Ham Specialty

Leftover cubes of smoked ham can be combined with mushrooms; heated in a velvety cream sauce and served in the center of a spinach ring.

Canned Meat On Parade

Spread appetance between layers of sliced canned luncheon meat... stud the top piece of luncheon meat with whole cloves. Place canned meat—appetance sandwiches on cookie sheet and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 15 minutes or until heated through. Sausage or ground meat may be stored up to three months in a home freezer.

Beef, Pork And Poultry Higher In Food Stores

By The Associated Press

Variety is the key word in the meat specials advertised by many supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this week.

Generally higher prices for beef and pork—from 4 to 6 cents for the former and as much as 11 cents for the latter—have cut the number of stores featuring these old standbys. In their places, assorted cuts of veal, lamb and ham, plus several varieties of poultry, will be offered.

Fryers Again Rise

Veal and lamb prices are reported just about unchanged this week, but sharp rises in wholesale prices for lambs probably will mean higher prices eventually. Wholesale prices for hogs were sharply this week, touching two-year highs.

Chicken might account for a bigger share of the market, except that prices for fryers are up in some areas by 4 to 8 cents a pound. Broilers, fryers, roasting chickens and stewing chickens all will be featured.

Lower prices tags on lettuce and cabbage may help the housewife to compensate for higher meat prices, even if it means more cole slaw and salads for the rest of the family.

Romaine and Boston varieties of lettuce are included in the outstanding buy category among vegetables, while iceberg lettuce from Eastern patches and new cabbage from Virginia and New Jersey fields are rated as good buys.

Also on the outstanding list are radishes from nearby fields, green onions, spinach, Maine storage potatoes and new yellow and green squashes from Southern areas.

Bunched Beets Good Buy

Other good buys are hunched beets where they're available from nearby fields, green beans, new white potatoes from California and South Carolina, Jersey asparagus,

Two-Clam Spaghetti
Ingredients: 1/4 cup olive oil, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 or 2 large cloves garlic (crushed), 1 can (8 ounces) minced clams, 1 can (19-ounce) julienne-style clams, 1/4 cup minced parsley, 10 to 12 ounces spaghetti, salt, pepper.

Method: Heat olive oil and butter over low heat in 1-quart saucepan. Add garlic and drained, minced and julienne-style clams; reserve clam juice from both cans. Simmer (do not boil or clams will toughen) for 10 minutes. Add clam juice and parsley and simmer another 10 minutes. Meanwhile cook spaghetti with boiling water and salt according to package directions; drain but do not rinse. Mix spaghetti and clam sauce together; add salt and pepper to taste; allow to stand over low heat about 5 minutes. Makes 4 servings. Note: If desired, each portion of spaghetti may be topped with a square of butter on serving.

She's The Food Expert, But—

Her Husband Does Family Cooking

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—One of the nation's top food experts doesn't like to cook. But that's O. K.—her husband does all the cooking in the family.

Dr. Esther F. Philpard, head of the Department of Agriculture's household economic research branch, says she has neither the time nor the inclination to cook. She prefers outdoor activity.

Husband Charles is a retired engineer, a former outdoor man himself. He says he enjoys the purchasing and cooking of all the household victuals, and it gives him something to do to occupy his time.

Mrs. Philpard has authored or co-authored many pamphlets and Department of Agriculture bulletins on nutrition and diet. Many of her pamphlets are a permanent part of the American kitchen, which she so happily avoids.

Although she doesn't like doing an apron and sweating over a hot stove, she has been interested in adequate foods all her life. "The logic of nutrition has always appealed to me," she says. "It is logical that your health is related to what you eat."

DR. ESTHER F. PHILPARD

Born on New York's Long Island, she studied home economics at Cornell and gained her Ph.D. in nutrition at Columbia, where she was elected to Sigma Psi, graduate scholarship honorary fraternity.

Her 20 years of service in the nutrition field for the Department of Agriculture have been interrupted only twice—for the birth of her two children, Jean, 20, now a junior at Mary Washington College, and Jonathan, 15.

The Philpards live just outside Falls Church, Va., in a rambling house shaped like the letter H. Mrs. Philpard's main activity outside working hours is her gardening. But true to her love for food, her garden is mostly vegetables and fruit trees with a few flowers "to pretty things up."

Asked for advice for mothers—or fathers—who are purchasing the family's groceries, she says: "Foods should be chosen intelligently, with a particularly important emphasis on foods containing calcium and vitamins A and C."

Mrs. Philpard recently directed the National Nutrition Education Conference in Washington, D.C., which included representatives from colleges, marketing services and federal extension services.

The conference sent out the word for a nutrition education program to emancipate the people from the stereotyped diet patterns your high school teacher chained you with.

The new approach says, "Eat what you want, but don't neglect those vitamins." Educators will now tell students to adjust their diets, not reform them.

Pimientos Add Interest To Meatless Pie

Pies come in many guises and surprises nowadays. Here is one which is neither sweet nor meat, but is hearty and filling, so plan to use it as your main dish.

The little whole onions and tangy red pimientos, combined with sharp cheese, give it good looks as well as good taste. With the other ingredients for interest and extra goodness, it all adds up to a satisfying meal.

Serve it with a crisp and crunchy vegetable salad, or, if your family prefers it, make your salad of fruits, either canned or fresh or a combination of the two.

Pimiento Onion Pie
1 4-oz. can or jar pimientos
2 cups tiny whole cooked onions (may be canned)
1/2 cup margarine (1 stick)

4 eggs, separated
2 tbs. flour
1/2 cup cream
1 cup white wine
Salt and pepper to taste
1 8-inch unbaked pie shell
Grated sharp cheese.
Melt margarine, add flour and stir to smooth paste. Remove from heat. Chop pimiento. (Save a few pieces for decoration on top.) Add pimientos and onions to margarine. Stir in cream and wine and season to taste. Stir in beaten egg yolks. Beat egg whites until stiff, fold into mixture, and pour into 9-inch unbaked pie shell, which has been sprinkled with grated cheese. Sprinkle some of the grated cheese over the top, and bake in a 375 degree oven for a half hour or until a golden brown. Serves 6.

Rich smooth scrambled eggs result when you add a couple of tablespoons of cream for each egg.

Raisin Go-Along
Ingredients: 1 cup seedless raisins, 1/2 cup golden raisins, 1/2 cup thinly sliced dried apricots, 1/4 cups apple juice, 1/2 cup orange juice.

Method: Rinse raisins and apricots in hot water; drain. Put in a saucepan with the apple juice and orange juice. Bring to a boil; skim off foam. Simmer about 10 minutes. Cool and store in refrigerator, in tightly covered container, overnight.

Note: If desired, 1/2 cup cooking sherry may be added to the fruit before refrigerating.

Cooking Kitchen Wonder Boy Can Bake Cake In One Hush-Hush Lesson

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Remember the famous advertisement of the '20's, "They laughed when he sat down at the piano but their eyes popped when he began to play?" Our boy was the hit of the evening and he had learned it all in 10 easy lessons from a mail-order course.

You, too, can be a wonder boy, and it takes only one easy lesson if you follow our method. But you'll pull your performance in the kitchen.

I any one of you hankers after an unconditional guarantee, here's our claim: we can teach you to bake a made-from-scratch cake, complete with ripe red strawberries and ice cream, even if you've never boiled water, made toast, heated a can of soup. And you don't have to fill out a coupon, clip a box top, add the last line to linerick or send a dime to pay for the cost of handling. All that's necessary is to follow these directions. Moreover, you can whip up the cake for this "spectacular" in five minutes flat.

Top Secret

First, hide this recipe from the little woman. She probably won't believe you can scramble a few ingredients together and produce a bona fide cake. Have confidence in us and all will be okay.

Next time you're coerced into lending a hand with the food shopping, find some flour that has baking powder and salt mixed into it. In the North, this will come in a package and be labeled "self-rising cake flour." In the South, it will probably come in a bag and be called "self-rising flour."

Miracle Cake

1. Grease the bottom of a cake pan that's 8 inches square and 1 1/2 inches deep. Line the bottom of the pan with waxed paper and lightly rub the paper with butter or margarine. Turn on the oven to moderate (350 degrees).

2. Spoon some of the self-rising flour (lightly now, no packing down) into a 1-cup measure and level off the top; dump into a medium-sized mixing bowl. Measure 1 cup of sugar the same way, dump it over the flour and stir together.

3. Break a couple of eggs into a 1-cup measure and fill the cup to the very top with heavy cream. Throw the eggs-and-cream mixture over the flour-and-sugar mixture. Add a teaspoon of pure vanilla extract. Beat vigorously until there are absolutely no lumps, occasionally scraping sides and bottom of bowl with a rubber scraper. Use a hand rotary beater or that electric mixer your wife persuaded you to buy.

4. Turn into the pan you got ready. Clean the bowl with the rubber scraper. Might as well squeeze out the last drop of batter, you paid for it. Smooth the top of your cake so it will be level.

5. Put the pan on the rack nearest the middle of the preheated oven and set the kitchen timer so it will ring in 35 minutes. When that time is up, insert a toothpick in the center of the cake. If no crumbs adhere to the pick, and the cake has pretty well shrunk from the sides of the pan, is done and you don't have to bake it any longer.

6. Potholder in hand, remove cake from oven. Free sides of cake from sides of pan by running a small knife between the two. Turn pan over on a wire rack and cake will fall out. Take off paper promptly. Now hold another rack over bottom of cake and turn upside up.

Crowning Glory

Even though you throw your cake together in front of a party of guys and dolls, hailing and sugaring strawberries for it won't impress anyone. So do this before your freeloaders arrive. Then when your audience is drooling, build up plates of cake, strawberries and scoops of vanilla ice cream. By the time every crumb has been eaten, you'll be a sensation.

Red Cherry Sauce

Ingredients: 1 can (1 pound and 1 ounce) pitted tart red cherries (water packed), 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, salt, brandy flavoring.

Method: Drain cherries thoroughly. If necessary, add enough water to cherry juice to make 1 cup. Stir sugar, cornstarch and a dash of salt together in a 1-quart saucepan. Add cherry juice slowly, stirring after each addition until smooth. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened and boiling; boil 1 minute. Pour over cherries. Add brandy flavoring to taste. Serve warm over hot cottage pudding.

YOUNG ROCKETEER—Steve Robin, 15, of Glenview, Ill., examines his nine-foot, five-stage rocket which he estimates will fly up to 350 mph and soar to 7,500 feet. Steve is now looking for a testing ground to launch his rocket. The youngster's three-pound contribution to rocket research is powered by ammonia and nitric acid, similar to the power used in space rockets now in the planning stage. Project cost him about $12, and was completed in two weeks.

Cream Puffs Ideal Entree Or Dessert

Cream puffs demand a special filling! Actually they're a perfect party pastry quite easily prepared.

Try the recipe and see for yourself... don't they have that authentic French appearance?

Several fillings are appropriate... for dessert fill the puffs with a cream filling, chocolate or butterscotch pudding, ice cream or whipped cream. Perhaps you'd like to top the puffs with confectioners' sugar or fresh fruit.

For luncheon, fill the puffs with creamed meat. If the puffs are made miniature style and filled with a meat mixture, they act as a conversation piece for an hors d'oeuvre tray.

Reba Staggs, home economist, comments that lard is an ideal shortening to use in making cream puffs, or any pastry. It has high shortening power and produces light, tender and flaky baked products.

Differences In Meat Loaf

A meat loaf can be a real challenge to you... each one can be different by just changing the seasons. Chili sauce, horseradish, prepared or dry mustard, cloves, sage, and allspice, are just a few suggestions for making a meat loaf mixture different.

When preparing figs for cooking, snip off the ends with the kitchen scissors. To soften figs, allow to stand in boiling water (off the heat) for about 10 minutes, then drain well.

Pie In The Sky, Angel Style

HEAVENLY EATING—This Angelwing pie is light and fluffy as a summer cloud.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

This Angelwing Pie was designed for mere mortals, but it's heavenly eating.

Prepare a pie shell of thin rich pastry for the crust. Then follow our directions for making the light-as-air Bavarian-type filling. Top the pie with fresh strawberries and finish with a light glaze. Add a fluff of whipped cream and some whole berries and serve for dessert at a supper.

partly when you want to put your best foot forward.

This dessert should really be called All-Summer-Long Pie because you can substitute other seasonal fruits for the strawberries. Fresh raspberries make a delicious topping for it; so do sliced fresh peaches.

Angelwing Pie

Ingredients: 2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin, 2 tablespoons cold water, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water and lemon juice in a small saucepan—3 cup size is fine. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved; cook without stirring to soft ball stage (236 degrees on candy thermometer). Remove from heat. Add salt to egg whites and beat with rotary beater (hand or electric) until they form peaks that drop over slightly when beater is slowly withdrawn. Gradually beat in hot cooked syrup and dissolved gelatin. (If gelatin has thickened place custard cup in a small container of simmering water and stir until fairly thin again.) Beat 3/4 cup of the cream and fold into egg white mixture with the vanilla. Turn into pie shell. Chill until firm. About 2 hours before serving, mix sliced strawberries with 1/2 cup sugar; let stand at room temperature for half an hour. Drain off juice and reserve. Spread berries over top of pie. If there is not 1/2 cup of strawberry juice, add cold water to it to make that amount. Put cornstarch in a small saucepan; gradually add strawberry juice, stirring to keep smooth. Stir constantly over moderately low heat until boiling and clear. Cool slightly and spoon berries over pie. Chill until top is set. Beat remaining 1/2 cup cream (sweetened with a little confectioners' sugar if desired) and garnish the pie with it and the whole uncapped berries. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

cup heavy cream, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 9-inch baked pie shell, 3 cups sliced fresh strawberries, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons cornstarch, 6 whole uncapped strawberries.

Method: Sprinkle gelatin over the 2 tablespoons cold water in a custard cup to soften. Place cup in pan of very hot (but not boiling) water until melted. Put the 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water and lemon juice in a small saucepan—3 cup size is fine. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved; cook without stirring to soft ball stage (236 degrees on candy thermometer). Remove from heat. Add salt to egg whites and beat with rotary beater (hand or electric) until they form peaks that drop over slightly when beater is slowly withdrawn. Gradually beat in hot cooked syrup and dissolved gelatin. (If gelatin has thickened place custard cup in a small container of simmering water and stir until fairly thin again.) Beat 3/4 cup of the cream and fold into egg white mixture with the vanilla. Turn into pie shell. Chill until firm. About 2 hours before serving, mix sliced strawberries with 1/2 cup sugar; let stand at room temperature for half an hour. Drain off juice and reserve. Spread berries over top of pie. If there is not 1/2 cup of strawberry juice, add cold water to it to make that amount. Put cornstarch in a small saucepan; gradually add strawberry juice, stirring to keep smooth. Stir constantly over moderately low heat until boiling and clear. Cool slightly and spoon berries over pie. Chill until top is set. Beat remaining 1/2 cup cream (sweetened with a little confectioners' sugar if desired) and garnish the pie with it and the whole uncapped berries. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Note: A quart of strawberries should give an ample amount for this dessert.

Date Nut Dessert

Ingredients: 1/4 cup flour, 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup very fine graham-cracker crumbs, 1 cup thinly-sliced pitted dates, 1 cup coarsely broken walnut meats, 3 eggs, 1 cup sugar.

Method: Stir the flour, baking powder and salt together thoroughly. Mix in the graham-cracker crumbs and then the dates and walnuts. Beat eggs in a medium-sized mixing bowl until thickened and lemon-colored; gradually beat in sugar until very thick and almost white in color. Fold in date-nut mixture. Turn into buttered baking pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 45 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Loosen dessert from sides of pan with spatula or knife; turn out on rack and cool. Serve warm or cold with a topping of whipped cream (slightly sweetened and flavored with vanilla) if desired. Cut remaining dessert in strips and store in tightly covered container.

Note: Snip dates crosswise into thin slices with scissors dipped in hot water; do not pack down in measuring. A 5 1/2-ounce package of pitted dates will make about 1 1/4 cups cut and measured this way. Graham-cracker crumbs now come in a 1 1/2-ounce package ready for use.

Asparagus with Cheese Sauce
Ingredients: 1 can (14 1/2 ounces) asparagus, milk, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 cup lightly-packed grated cheddar cheese, paprika.

Method: Drain asparagus; add enough milk to the liquid to make 1 cup. Melt butter over low heat in 1-quart saucepan; stir in flour. Add asparagus liquid and milk mixture. Cook and stir constantly until thickened; remove from heat. Add cheese; stir until melted. Meanwhile heat drained asparagus in 8-inch covered skillet over very low heat; add a teaspoon or so of water if necessary. Pour hot cheese sauce over drained hot asparagus; sprinkle with paprika. Makes 4 servings.

Breakfast fruit: Fresh orange and grapefruit sections sweetened with honey and topped with grated orange rind. Refreshing!

DAY IN SPORTS

The next record that Donora, Pa.'s Stan Musial has his bat cocked for is one held by the former homer king of the major leagues, ex-Pirate Ralph Kiner.

"The Man" Stan sailed by Yankee Clipper Joe DiMaggio with his club Tuesday evening against the Pittsburgh Pirates in the all-time home run parade. The sock-was—the 362nd for Musial and broke the Cleveland Indians' record of 361 set by the former Yankee centerfielder.

Musial, who also wants to get 3,000 hits before he thinks of retiring, now has only to slap eight roundtrippers to take over the sixth position. Kiner had 369 of his belts go for the distance, 301 coming in his career with the Bucs.

Heading the homer parade, naturally, is Babe Ruth with 714. Maryland strong boy, Jimmie Fox, is runner-up with 534 while Mel Ott spanked 511 with the Giants and Lou Gehrig just missed the half thousand mark by clobbering 493 circuit swals for the Yankees.

In fifth place is Boston's Ted Williams with his dozen of this season giving the Splendid Splinter a lifetime total of 430. Ted entered the year with 418 blasts.

The remarkable Musial has garnered so many records with his "pecking-around-the-corner" batting style that it appears likely he will own about every hitting mark in the National League before retiring his uniform to mothballs for the Cardinals.

Reds For Rocky

One of the big reasons for the life shown by the Washington Senators the past few weeks have not been solely due to the batting heroics of Roy Stivers and Jim Lemon. There is a tobacco-chewing shortstop called "Rocky" Bridges who has been roaming far and wide for the Nats making spectacular plays.

Rocky came to the Senators in a waiver deal a few weeks back. If you have been watching the Nats on TV the past couple of games, Bridges has supplied lots of excitement although his batting average wouldn't scare many pitchers.

And the biggest rooters for Rocky are themselves now embroiled in a tight race for the National League flag. They are the Cincinnati Reds. One of the first questions most of them ask after their games these days is "How did Washington make out?"

They are not interested in the Senators due to the fact that "Cookie" Lavagetto has succeeded "Chuck" Drossen as manager, or because the Senators have been their spring training partners on the way north the last few years.

They are interested in the Nats because of Bridges and Rocky. A Red for more than four seasons, Rocky is one of their all-time favorites. His farewell message to the Reds will not take its place in history with George Washington's farewell address, but all the Reds can tell you the entire text of Rocky's farewell and it's doubtful if any of them know what Washington said in his speech.

Bridges' final words to the Cincinnati players is written in chalk on the blackboard in the team's Crosley Field clubhouse and it's going to be a long time before any one has the lemerity to erase it.

The good-humored Bridges wrote: "Good Luck to the best damn team in the league. (Signed) The Free Loader, Rocky."

By free loader, Bridges meant that he had received all the benefits of being a regular on the Reds for the past three years without seeing much action.

Scott Moving Up

Those who attended the Dapper Dan Sports Dinner two years ago were impressed with the smooth work done by Ray Scott, Pittsburgh TV and radio announcer, as master of ceremonies.

Ray, having firmly established himself as one of the outstanding play-by-play men in the country by virtue of his excellent broadcasts of practically every major sporting event—either on radio or TV—realizes his fondest wish and passes another milestone Saturday, June 15.

Scott will team up with Leo Durocher for a coast-to-coast telecast of the Pittsburgh Pirates-Chicago Cubs "Game Of The Week" for NBC-TV.

During his brief career that has seen him skyrocket to success as the voice of the Pitt Panthers and Duquesne Dukes, Ray has been honored by all four major networks on several occasions, yet has never previously experienced the thrill of broadcasting one of his favorite sports.

'Night Club' Yanks Start To Act Like Champs

BomberBats Rap Indians But Chisox Retain Edge

By HOWARD SIGMUND

NEW YORK—(INS)—The Yankees must have read where another pennant will wipe out their times for they're beginning to act like champions.

Yogi Fractures Nose, To Miss Tiger Series

CLEVELAND—(INS)—X-rays showed today that New York Yankee catcher Yogi Berra suffered a compound fracture of the nose in last night's game with the Cleveland Indians.

Dr. Harry A. Haller, who serves as the Yankee team doctor in Cleveland, said the stocky backstop will be out "for three or four days. He'll probably miss the Detroit series."

Berra had a perfect game for three innings but when Yankee backstop Yogi Berra left after a freak catching accident, his teammates tore off four runs in the fourth, which included GIP's first homer and Mickey Mantle's 12th of the year, a 440-footer, and seven more in the fifth. McDougald also hit a two-run single for five RBIs and Bill Showers slammed a two-run homer.

Berra was clipped in the third by Larry Raines' foul tip. The ball broke the protective bar of the catcher's mask and drove it into Yogi's nose, causing it to pour blood extremely from the cut and internally from a possible fracture.

Diminutive Bobby Shantz, meanwhile, was setting the Tribe down on seven hits, two of them homers by Jim Hegon and Alex Carrasquel. The bargain-basement comeback veteran now is 6-1, with five complete games in seven starts and an earned run average well under two.

Errors Help Chisox

The White Sox took advantage of some sloppy fielding and Tom Brewer's wildness to beat Boston in a day game, 6 to 2. Dick Donovan pitched an eight-hitter for his fifth win against one defeat.

Bill Tuttle singled home Al Kaline from second base in the 11th inning to give Detroit a 3-2 victory over Washington, and in another night game, Kansas City downed Baltimore, 3 to 2, on Lou Skizas' fourth-inning home run.

The front-running Cincinnati Reds dropped Philadelphia in a 10-3 thrashing in the National League with a 4-to-2 victory in 11 innings at Connie Mack Stadium. Brooklyn took up the slack by blanking Chicago, 4 to 0, on Don Drysdale's five-hitter at Jersey City, and the St. Louis Cardinals jumped on Bob Friend for four runs in the first inning and a 5-1-1 victory at Pittsburgh.

The New York Giants slammed six homers, including two each by Hank Sauer and Red Schoendienst, but lost to Milwaukee, 9 to 8, in the only NL daylight contest.

Phil's Loss In 11th

A crowd of 15,771 saw the Phils go ahead in the sixth inning with rookie Ed Bouchee's sixth homer of the year but the Redlegs fled it in the ninth with George Crowe's run-scoring single and wrapped it up in the 11th with an error by Chico Fernandez on Gus Bell's grounder and Jerry Lynch's pinch triple. Johnny Klippstein and Dick Farrell were winner and loser, respectively.

Drysdale struck out nine Cubs and permitted no one past second base as he pitched his first major league shutout and fifth victory for the Dodgers in seven decisions. Gil Hodges and Duke Snider had three hits apiece.

The Cardinals used five hits, a walk and an error to provide Lindy McDaniel with all the runs he needed in the first inning. Friend then gave up only one more hit the rest of the way and fanned seven, including four in a row. But McDaniel struck out eight and pitched a five-hitter. Wally Moon rapped his 11th homer for the Cards.

Hot-Stove Darling Tigers Struggle To Keep In Race

DETROIT—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers, darlings of the hot stove league, are having lots of trouble keeping their big winter buildup from turning into the big summer letdown.

With the season almost one-third over, the club designed by the experts as a "comer" is fighting desperately to maintain a winning percentage. The first-division spot that most everyone conceded the Tigers before the campaign began has been a here-today-gone-tomorrow operation up to now.

"Don't Know Trouble"

"I don't know what the trouble is," rookie manager Jack Tighe confessed. "If I could diagnose it, maybe I could do something about it."

Tighe's biggest headache is a four-barreled pain. Harvey Kuenn, Charlie Maxwell, Al Kaline and Ray Boone had plus-300 batting averages last season. All four are below that mark now, and Kuenn—who has been above the 300 mark ever since he broke into the majors—is batting a .247 average through the first 46 games. Boone is hitting only .255 after a torrid start.

Right now the Tigers are even in wins and losses with 23 each. They are tied with the Boston Red Sox for fourth place, nine games behind the league-leading Chicago White Sox.

Battling Only .248

A year ago the Tigers led the American League in hitting with a .279 mark, but the 1957 club is batting only .248.

"I'm real disappointed in the Tigers," said Rogers Hornsby during the club's recent series in Chicago. "I had read so much about them and I expected a lot more."

Tighe has expected more, too, and openly advocates a couple of trades unless the club picks up during the current home stand. The Detroit club is operating with an eight-man pitching staff, slimmer than in the majors, and the bench that was supposed to have been made stronger by winter dealings has been one of Tighe's major letdowns.

"I never thought it'd be like this," said the personable skipper. "I once said we'd go just as far as our pitching carried us. Well, this crop of young pitchers has really surprised me. So have the hitters—but I don't like to be surprised that way."

Phillies' Fan May Have Cost Win Over Reds

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—A spectator at the Philadelphia-Cincinnati game last night probably cost the Phillies the victory—and wound up in jail.

In the third inning with one out and the Phillies' Richie Ashburn on first, Grannie Hammer lined one down the right field line. Ashburn was home and Hammer rounding second with the ball still bouncing along when Thomas Harrison of Wilmington, Del. leaped out of the stands and grabbed it. Ashburn was sent back to third and Hammer to second when the umpires ruled a ground rule double. On the next play Ashburn scored on a slow roller but Hammer who would have been on third but for the interference never reached home.

Cincinnati later won 4-2 in 11 innings.

And Harrison?

He was escorted from the park by an usher and turned over to police who charged him with disorderly conduct.

Harrison was probably glad of the police protection from the Phillies' fans who saw their team lose a chance to come within a half game of league-leading Cincinnati and drop to third place instead.

Rubber City Open To Begin Today

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Doug Ford and Arnold Palmer, top money makers this year on the professional golf circuit, tee off with 130 other golfers here today in the opening round of the $22,000 Rubber City Open Tournament.

The four-day medal test will be played over the 6,620-yard Firestone Country Club course. Three former winners of the event—Ed Furgol, Tommy Bolt and Henry Ransom—are shooting for this year's top prize money of $2,800.

Some of the game's top stars—Jack Burke, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan, Dr. Cary Middlecott and Jim Demaret—skipped the Akron tournament for practice rounds at Toledo, Ohio, where the National Open will be played next week.

STOVE BARGAIN BILL SET AT PENN AVENUE

Elks and Jaycees will be out to snare their second wins with out a setback while B'nai B'rith and Exchange Club hope to crack the victory column in the Hot Stove Baseball League this evening at Penn Avenue Field.

Elks will meet playoff champion B'nai B'rith at 6:15 in the first part of the bargain bill, while Exchange and Jaycees will collide in the nightcap at 8:15.

B'nai B'rith was beaten in its first start by Jaycees, 8-3, while Exchange fell before Rotary Club, 19-4. Elks made a successful debut by slipping past Kiwanis Club, 4-3.

One Game Carded

Only one game is scheduled in the Pen-Mar Little League today with DAV No. 2 facing Elks on the latter's diamond. The contest is to start at 6 o'clock.

The Barrelville-at-LaVale Orioles clash has been set back to Saturday at 1 p.m. while LaVale Maroons and Cresapton will play their game tomorrow evening, 6 o'clock, on the Cresapton diamond.

CCC Golfers Snare Second Win Of Year

Lakeview Country Club of Morgantown, W. Va., is next for the unbeaten Men's Golf team of the Cumberland Country Club.

The locals, who trounced North Fork Country Club of Johnstown, Pa., 20½ to 8½, yesterday, will meet Lakeview on the latter's course this Sunday.

The teams met twice last season with Cumberland sweeping both matches. The CCC linksmen are now 2-0 for the year, winning over Fountain Head Country Club in their opener, 29½ to 19½ points. Twenty players have signed for the Sunday match with others wishing to play asked to contact the local golf shop.

Win Nine Foursomes

Capturing nine of the 12 foursomes, five by 3-0 scores, the locals had little trouble yesterday over their Pennsylvania rival on the local course.

Although losing, the invaders got some consolation in the fine round turned in by Bill Brendel, Johnstown amateur, who toured the course in a 66. Brendel, teamed with George Anderson, North Fork pro, defeated Carroll Boggs, CCC pro, and "Bill" Catherman, 3-0.

The amateur record was set by Catherman, who shot 65 when par for the course was 70. It's now 71. Brendel had seven birdies and two bogies and he and his partner had a total of ten birdies.

The Pennsylvanians won only two foursomes and split even in another.

Twilight Tourney Set

The Men's Golf Association will sponsor a twilight tournament today, starting at 5 p.m. This is a nine-hole affair. There will be free supper with refreshments.

Summary of yesterday's contests:

Anderson and Brendel, Johnstown, 3; Catherman and Catherman, 0; Phil Johnson, Cumberland, 3; Griffith and Dick Small, 0.

Secretary and Penitentiary, Johnstown, 2; George Polaris and James W. Beacham, 0.

Russell Ponton and George Garfield, Cumberland, 3; Wilson and Gysaich, 0; Ed Mattingly and Alay Rustling, Cumberland, 2; Paul Woods and Al Walker, 0.

Ben LaVene and Dr. Frank Catherman, 3; Joe Delinsky and Hadley, 0.

Reid Schmidt and William George, Cumberland, 3; Moody and Baughner, 0.

Hal Sebra and L. W. Brown, Cumberland, 2; Yutzy and Ray Rustling, Cumberland, 2; Leubert and Jim Wilson, Cumberland, 2; Alwine and Ruffner, 0.

Albe Felgus and Capt. R. A. Clarke, Cumberland, 2; Imler and Komar, Cumberland, 0; Gravel and Barnett, 1½ (ties).

Markley Top ACL Hurler

For the second straight year Fort Hill High's Jesse Markley paced the pitchers in the Allegheny County Baseball League.

The durable senior right-hander marked up six wins in seven decisions for the champion Sentinels.

Grover Fazenbaker of Valley was the workhorse of the circuit, participating in 13 of the Black Knights 14 contests, and shared honors with Markley by notching six of nine decisions.

Fazenbaker not only was in the most games but he pitched the greatest number of innings, a total of 72.

Markley was the league's strikeout king, firing the third strike past a total of 85 batters in 38½ innings. He was in seven complete games. His closest competitor was Dave Richards of Beall who whiffed 71 in 32½ innings. Jesse was tops in 1956 with 69 victims.

Marshall Winters of Beall ranked second to Markley among the regulars with a 4-2 mark and Fazenbaker copped third place.

Markley closed out his four-year pitching career at Fort Hill with a 26-5 record. Starting with 1954 his won and lost records have been 5-1, 8-1, 7-2 and 6-1. He is topped only by Moose Arnone who led the league in 1950, 1951 and 1952 with 9-0, 12-0 and 11-1 marks, pitched Beall to three championships and wound up with 31 wins and two defeats.

Performing in eight innings of a 10-inning contest on April 26 against Mt. Savage, Bob Paye of Allegheny struck out 17 batters for the season's high one-game mark. Gene Cave, his successor, was charged with the 3-2 loss.

The strikeout mark for a single season is 174 and was hung up by Bobby Raines of Bruce High in 1952. The same year Arnone whiffed 27 Bruce batsmen in 12 innings. Raines moved down 19 in nine frames and 20 in ten stanzas.

Athletes, Officials Deny 'Pep' Comes From Pills

NEW YORK—(AP)—Athletes and sports officials were on record today as saying they get their pep from training and physical conditioning, not from pills as stated in a resolution by delegates of the American Medical Assn.

The AMA yesterday ordered a study by its trustees into "shocking" reports of dangerous abuse of potent pep-up pills by athletes. They called for a halt to any abuses of drugs to make players superathletes.

"No Coincidence"

Dr. Herbert Berger, chairman of the New York State Medical Society, said, "The recent rash of four-minute miles is no coincidence. When I was a college boy, the four-minute mile was as unlikely as flying to the moon."

His society introduced the resolution.

Don Bowden, University of California miler who was the first American to break the four-minute barrier, called the statements "ridiculous and silly."

"I don't believe anything could help you run a four-minute mile except top physical condition," he said.

Worst Abuse In Boxing

Dr. Berger said he thinks the worst abuse is by boxing, secondarily by professional and college football and other athletes, and thirdly by high school athletes.

James A. Farley Jr. of the New York State Athletic Commission said, "We have a competent and able medical staff checking fighters before and after every bout and I am convinced they could detect any violation of our rules which forbid the use of drugs before a fight."

Walt Byers, executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn., and well known track coach George Eastman of Manhattan both said they never heard of such a thing in intercollegiate athletics. Eastman said he would ask for an investigation when the college track coaches meet next week in Austin, Tex.

Barton Registers Fourth Win, 10-4

Lonaconing and Finzel clash this evening at Zihlman in the Twilight Baseball League. Set for 5:45, the game was postponed from yesterday and also shifted to Zihlman because the Finzel field is not ready to play on yet.

Barton notched its fourth win without a loss yesterday in handing Zihlman a 10-4 setback at Barton. No report was received on the Midland-Wright's Crossing contest.

Billy Johnson spaced nine hits while his mates were rapping a trio of Zihlman hurlers for 11 bingles. Tom Warnick, George Lauder and Bill Fazenbaker shared six of the winners' safeties.

Defenbaugh had a triple, double and single and Downtown a pair of hits for the losers. Downtown, starting hurler, was the loser.

Zihlman 10 runs 10 hits 4 errors
Barton 21 runs 10 hits 10 errors

Downtown, Miller (1), Defenbaugh (4), and Smith, B. Johnson and Ed Warnick, LP—Downtown.

Oakland Moose Whips Rotary Club By 7-3

Getting five of their runs in the second and third innings, Moose whipped Rotary Club, 7-3, in a Pony Baseball League game yesterday at Oakland.

Steve Layton and Dick Stuck held the Rotarians to three hits with the former receiving credit for the win. Layton fanned seven and Stuck six. Stemple went the route for Rotary, yielded eight hits and whiffed eight.

Preppit collected two of the winners' eight blows. Bolyard, Riggs and Porter accounted for the Rotary safeties.

Moose 632 031 0-7-3
Rotary 092 110 0-3-3

Layton, Stuck (5) and Defenbaugh, Stemple and Bolyard WP—Layton.

McDougald Still Hitting Tribe Hurlers

By International News Service

The last time Gil McDougald visited Cleveland, the Yankee shortstop was involved in the shocking Herb Score freak accident.

That was a month ago and Gil swore then that he would quit baseball if the line drive off his bat left Cleveland's million-dollar southpaw blind.

Tearing Tribe Hopes

Score is well on the road to recovery but the Tribe can't help wishing McDougald would quit—quit tearing their peynant dreams to shreds.

The 29-year-old Californian helped beat Cleveland Tuesday night in the field by starting three double plays.

Wednesday night he instituted another, but most of his activity was at the plate.

In the fourth inning, the slick shortstop and Mickey Mantle socked solo homers as Early Wynn rocked under five hits.

Bats In Five Runs

In the fifth, McDougald homered again behind Hank Bauer's leadoff single and then made it five runs batted in for himself with the last safety of the seven-run innings.

Gil really enjoyed his freedom from the anguish of that terrible accident and before the evening was over, the Yankees had smothered Cleveland, 13 to 3.

Mary Haworth's Mail

Editor's Note: Chronic mysterious fear has gripped youth ever since drinking party six years ago.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am 21, a senior in college, and expect to be graduated, and to marry, this summer. Upon graduation, I shall be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army reserve, and have orders to report for active duty in July.

My problem is anxiety, that has perplexed me constantly for the past five years. Each time a party or dance is scheduled I can't eat or even think straight. Some type of fear seems to take hold within me, and I lose all self-confidence.

I have been to doctors, who find nothing wrong physically, and I consulted a psychiatrist who said my worries had no foundation, and I should face everyday problems without fear. I've had a series of injections to subdue my emotions, also other medication — none of which helps very much.

Mental Block Of Some Sort

It must be some sort of mental block; but no matter how hard I try to avoid thinking about upcoming events, some sort of tension grips my stomach and I feel completely sick and uncooperative. The first seizure occurred in 1951, on a day I was to go to a party. The previous week I had been to a party, at which I had got terribly drunk and it seems I never recovered completely from the hangover.

Now I am at the end of my rope. All during my college years I have avoided all types of social events, mainly because of the anxiety that develops on the days leading up to these affairs. With graduation and matrimony approaching, I feel trapped, I very much love my fiancée and want her to be my wife; and she has tried to help me throw off this anxiety — to no avail.

Please help me if possible. I realize I must face these events like a man, but I can't bring myself to cope with everyday emotional problems.—P. D.

Shock Reaction To Misconduct

DEAR P. D.: The riddle of your anxiety might be solved, if you could recollect precisely what happened the night you got terribly drunk, six years ago.

The fact that you've suffered a chain reaction of emotional sickness ever since suggests that you may have experimented with sex misconduct while drunk — an escapade that left you feeling terribly ashamed, sinful and frightened, as if marked for life; so that you "drew a blank" by morning, to bury the intolerable memory.

It occurs to me, too, that you may have got frightfully drunk deliberately, or let yourself be enticed into that state, to deaden your sensibilities to a shocker, experience that you suspected might be in the offing, that evening. Or possibly the shocking aspects of the evening took you by surprise, and caught you completely off guard, vulnerable and innocent — until too late. It may have been a homosexual episode; or an encounter with commercialized vice.

Lacks Confidence In His Manhood?

In any case, it seems significant that you hadn't felt marked anti-social anxiety and shattered self-confidence before that evening; and have suffered it ever since, with pointed reference to parties and dances — occasions where the whole situation is a traditional test of one's ability to "rate" with one's own and the other sex.

Maybe you've never been sure that you could be a man — or were cut out to be a man — since the night of dissipation, six years ago; and therefore dread, with special apprehension, the summer's assignments of marriage and Army life.

Medical and psychiatric consultations having missed the mark, my advice is to get first-class psychoanalytical help in diagnosing the psychological trouble which started that evening.

In the event you did outrage your conscience or self-esteem unspeakably, when under the influence of drink that night, a confessional session with a priest or clergyman (a spiritual physician) would be a logical follow-through — once you've brought the hidden emotional tangle out into the light of clear understanding.—AL H.

Escapace Receives Sentence Of Year

A 24-year-old local man who eluded two constables while being taken to Allegany County Jail Monday afternoon and a local man who aided him in his escape were tried yesterday in Trial Magistrate Court.

Gary Patton, 879 Maryland Avenue, was sentenced to a year in the House of Correction for escaping custody by Magistrate Donald W. Mason.

Harry Merrill, 42, of 101 Pennsylvania Avenue, at whose home Patton was nabbed, about nine hours after his escape, was found guilty and sentenced to six months in the House of Correction. Magistrate Mason suspended Merrill's sentence and placed him on a year's probation.

Patton, who escaped while being taken to the county jail to serve six months for selling a household appliance on which he owed an unpaid balance, faces the six months term here on completion of his prison sentence.

WARWICK, Va. (AP)—The Rev. Lloyd A. Clarke, pastor of St. Stephen's mission here, inadvertently omitted an important part of his Sunday service—the exercise in charity. He didn't recall he had neglected to take up the offering until he was walking out of the church.

"Bride And Groom" Will Return To Television

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Bride and Groom is coming back. After an absence of three years from the home screen, the marriage ceremony will receive a video treatment every Monday through Friday beginning July 1 over NBC-TV.

Singer Frank Parker and actor Robert Paige will serve as co-hosts of the program on which 2,340 couples were married during five years of radio and four years of television.

John Reddy, producer of the show throughout its long life, says Bride and Groom has but one object. "We try to give the ordinary American girl a chance to have a big wedding on television, just like Grace Kelly and Queen Elizabeth."

The idea is simple enough: a girl marries a guy before the TV audience and they are showered with all kinds of loot — refrigerators, toasters, swimming pools, a trip here or there. The only thing they forfeit is their freedom.

The hearts, flowers and booty implicit in the program made it a housewives' delight. There are all kinds of statistics available on the show — except the total gallons of joyful tears spilled by tired housewives in vicarious delight at attending a wedding.

On the other hand, one Long Island husband was arrested for his dissenting opinion on Bride and Groom. He grew so tired of his wife watching the program every day that he drew a 38 and scored a bull's-eye on their TV set. Not all males agreed with him, however. Inmates of San Quentin Prison voted it a daytime favorite.

Bride and Groom marriages endure, says producer Reddy. A questionnaire sent 1,100 couples that their divorce rate was less than one tenth that of the national average.

In Memoriam

In memory of our beloved father, William W. Hamilton, who died 5 years ago today, June 6, 1952. Days of sadness are still with us. Tears in silence often flow. Memory keeps you ever near us, though you left 5 years ago. You are gone but not forgotten. And our hearts ache for you still. Forgive us, please, for others but by us we never will.

56 Buick Special

Looking for safety with economy? Try this spotless 2-tone blue with Synchronic transmission. This 220 h.p. V-8 has top zip and economy. WW tires like new. Radio—Red Liner Speedometer. Your family will appreciate the safety and comfort of this ruggedly built car.

55 Buick Century HT.
Your friends will rave about this popular Century sports car and say, "Why, it's just like new." Radio — Twin-Turbine variable pitch Dynaflow. WW tires. It's a rich black and white with matching cordovan leather and nylon interior. Buy this rugged Buick and get away from the bounce and jounce of the cheap light cars forever.

54 Buick Special HT.
Been looking for one of those "Once in a Blue Moon" cars? The local owner coddled this one and your friends will think it's new. Imagine this glistening black sport model in front of your home with new white wall tires. Has everything including Buick's "Million Dollar Safety Ride." Your family will enjoy being in this class.

53 Buick Super Sedan
Do you know what makes the Buick Super famous? Just drive this roomy model known everywhere for its comfort, safety and luxury. Has everything most new cars have and a lot more than many. Priced within everybody's budget.

53 Pontiac Sedan
Here is one of those Chieftan DeLuxe "B" Sedans that put Pontiac on the map. A beautiful 2-tone green — matching interior spotless. Hydramatic. Radio, good tires. A look at the clean bright chrome will convince you of the care given this car. More luxury than many new cars but within the price range of everybody.

Are you planning a
PRE-FAB OR PRE-CUT
HOME
If so, we know that you will be very pleased when you hear our "Home Planning Program." It has been our experience that frequently we can save you many dollars and a great deal of hardship by supplying material out of our yard rather than from a pre-fab factory. The advantage of dealing with a home-town lumber yard are many! You can be sure of Quality and know that we will be here to make any adjustments on material shortages. Our future depends upon your satisfaction and our prices are as low or lower in many cases than those of our "pre-fab" competitors. If you will give us the opportunity to quote on the same material lists and specifications that you would be receiving with your pre-fab, we are confident that we can save you many dollars.

South bid his hand a little too scientifically. The moment his partner raised his opening spade bid he should have simply bid game in spades and ignored the slight possibility that a four-four would be from West's opening lead. West was in and ready to lead his third spade but East had wasted that vital third trump.

I can't blame East severely and would rather give South credit for finding an ingenious way to counter against West's brilliant defense.

fit in hearts might be discovered.

West took full advantage of South's science. He decided that East would hold three hearts and not more than two spades. West opened the ace of spades and continued the suit.

South won the second spade in dummy and saw exactly what was going to happen to him. West would get in with the king of hearts and give his partner a spade ruff.

South happened to have one more shot in his locker. He led a low diamond to his ace, returned a diamond to dummy's king and led the queen of diamonds.

East fell right into the trap. He didn't see what good his three little trumps were and he did see that South was trying to get a quick discard. East ruffed with the eight spot!

South over-ruffed with the jack and played the ace and another trump. He knew where the king suits I phoned my doc to cancel my next appointment. I informed him the stuff was preventing my hair from falling out. "It's like it was stuck on me now," I assured him.

"Have you combed it lately?" he asked. I hesitated. To tell the truth, I hadn't, but I would.

I called him back sheepishly as my sheep dog, and said I had combed it. The comb was still laughing at me. He told me to come over.

"If it's a bottle you want, well, son, I've got a bottle here that I'll positively guarantee will keep hair on your head. In fact, the American Medical Association will back up my discovery."

I offered to run right over.

When I got there, I shook with nerves like a guy going off dope. I trembled. "Where's the bottle? Where is it?" I screamed.

"Take it easy, son. Take it easy," he said. "It's right here. But don't you think we need a little examination first?"

I shouted no. I had diagnosed my condition enough. I wanted the bottle. The bottle. THE BOTTLE!

"Well, here it is, then," he said. "And guaranteed by the American Medical Association to keep what hair is left on your head ON your head."

He handed me the bottle. I grabbed it fiercely. I looked at the label. It was familiar. Very familiar to me. I had seen lots of them. Hundreds of them in my very own office.

It was a bottle of glue.

"Accompanist" Fired By Concert Violinist

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., (AP)—Violinist Isaac Stern suddenly interrupted his playing of a Brahms concerto to announce he couldn't complete with a cricket. A five-minute search located the sound in a polished palm. Cricket and palm were carried out. Stern and the orchestra returned, and the concert was concluded.

State Leads In Road Plan

BALTIMORE (AP)—You can say we're the first state to have its money is needed to complete construction of the state's portion of the interstate highway system.

“We may have been first again,” said SRC Chairman Robert O. Bonnell.

The figure forwarded to the federal Bureau of Public Roads was not made public at an SRC meeting yesterday. Bonnell explained that the bureau regards the information as confidential until it is in the hands of Congress.

Congress has appropriated about $2 billion dollars for the entire 13-year interstate program nationwide. For the first three years, funds are being allocated on the basis of population and highway mileage.

Bonnell estimated that applying this same formula for all 13 years would give Maryland about 295 million dollars. But funds will be allocated on the basis of need after the first three years.

The SRC chairman said that if Maryland's need figures were approved intact, the 13-year total would swell to about 464 million dollars.

The SRC signed agreements at yesterday's meeting making federal highway aid available for these three projects:

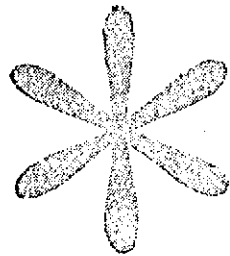

An underpass on the Washington National Pike at Old Georgetown Road, $326,520; a bridge over the Baltimore Beltway at Westland and Shellbourne Aves., $233,200, and a bridge over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on Connecticut Ave. in Kensington, Md., $152,600.

Figures listed for the first two projects represent 90 per cent of the projects' total cost. The federal government is supplying all of the money for the Kensington bridge.

The commission decided to appeal nine awards made by county boards of property review in right-of-way condemnation proceedings. All nine awards—usually somewhere between what the SRC thought the property worth and what the owner wanted for it—were termed excessive by the SRC.

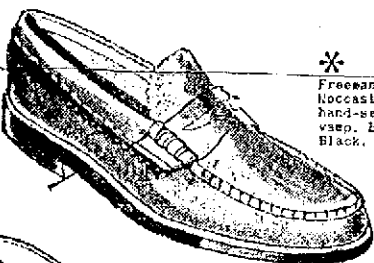

The biggest difference of opinion was on a 19-acre piece of land needed for the Hagerstown By-Pass. The commission posted $4,500 for Lee E. Stine's property and the board awarded $18,000.

The U.S. aircraft carrier Saratoga measures 107 feet from waterline to top of the foremast, 20 feet higher than Niagara Falls.

Baltimore Police Hold Pair Of "Bogus Doctors"

BALTIMORE (AP)—City police, and is seeking to invalidate the Attorney General's contention that the referendum petition is void.

Norris said the clerk noticed that the two licenses bore the signatures of two men previously licensed by Reddick. The licenses carried a date of May 27 — only last week.

Officers said Daniel A. Mooney, 55, gave his address as Jamaica, N. Y., and Donald Newiger, 31, as Staten Island, N. Y., when being questioned in the State's Attorney's Office. When taken to jail, however, both gave the address of 335 Fourth Ave., Lansdowne, Baltimore County.

James H. Norris Jr., special assistant attorney general assigned to the Dr. Robert H. Reddick case, said the two men went to the courthouse and when an alert assistant recognized the "licenses" as bogus — and tried to stall for time — they made a telephone call and left.

When the men returned later, however, they were picked up by plainclothes police assigned to the State's Attorney's Office. They had been taken there for questioning when Reddick himself showed up.

Dr. Reddick, former state psychiatrist ousted as secretary-treasurer of the Homeopathic Medical Society, has been under court order since last year not to take part in any future licensing of physicians — after a ruling that he conspired to license unqualified persons.

Reddick since has been indicted for conspiracy to violate the state's new Medical Practices Act passed by the 1957 General Assembly, has petitioned for a popular referendum on the act.

Library Aid Proposed

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Budget and Finance Committee of the Legislative Council has been urged to approve two bills which would provide for more State aid to public libraries.

Speaking for the bills in an appearance before the committee yesterday were Dr. Thomas G. Pullen Jr., State superintendent of schools; Mrs. Dorothy W. Reeder of the Maryland Library Assn. and Miss Amy Winslow, director of the Baltimore Enoch Pratt Free Library.

The two bills, which failed passage in the 1957 Legislature, would provide an incentive fund for library construction and expansion of present State aid for operating expenses and salaries of library personnel. They were referred to the between-sessions council for further study.

If passed, the two measures would cost the State $1,169,000 a year if all counties and Baltimore City participated.

More than 6,500,000 persons suffer from chronic arthritis in the United States, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.
